CUB SCOUT NEWS PACK 77

A community meeting of Pack 77 was held Friday night at the Masonic Hall. Plans under the direction of John Cannon, Cubmaster, for the coming year highlighted a Christmas Party, Blue and Gold Dinner, campouts, Pine-wood Derby and scores of games and skits.

A request is being made at this time for all boys between the ages of 8 and 11 interested in Scouting to be at the Masonic Hall Wednesday, October 27, at 7 P. M. One or both parents must be present. This meeting will be for registration of new boys and to acquaint them with Scouting. A movie of Africa has been obtained for this meeting, also.

An urgent plea for den mothers and any adult interested in Scouting has been made public by Chairman Robert Ennis. Mr. Ennis states, "Without den mothers and adult workers there is a possibility Cub Scouting will die out in Andover". Mr. Ennis goes on to say, "Cub Scouting is in its 15th year in Andover, but if the adults in this town cannot spare one hour or less a week to help the lads who want to become Scouts, the program here will dissolve. The Cub Scout of today is the Boy Scout of tomorrow and the future citizens of America".

Cub Pack 77 needs three or four den mothers and a secretary. Please contact John Cannon.
