"Your Gift of Happiness"
by Kathy Shellman

Saturday, Halloween, child after child will knock on your door and say "trick or treat". The treat you give them will make them happy and on they will travel to the next house—those cute little tramps, witches, ghosts, fairies and anything else these children choose to be for this gay occasion. But after they receive their treat they'll ask you for another little donation. You know the regular routine; some will say "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" and some will shyly smile and hold out their container. These children ask not only for happiness for themselves—they ask for your gift which will bring happiness to those who do not know the joy of trick and treating.

Who says small ones can do nothing for the world? Is there a better way for them to help the needy? Help them to do a good job; a job they can be proud of. Drop your pennies, nickels, and dimes into the orange UNICEF containers. One penny can buy seven days supply of milk and two cents can buy some child a vaccination. Just think what a dime can do.

Remember, that shy little smile showing thanks behind that mask means a great big smile on a little face far away.

Student Council Election

On Thursday, Oct., 21, grades seven through twelve voted for a new Student Council President. The candidates were Donna Brown, William Greene and Robert Wilson. All three candidates gave speeches to the student body on Wednesday and Thursday mornings. The speeches were promising and it was a close race but Donna won.

Congratulations Donna, we know you'll make a fine president.

Cheerleading Tryouts

Cheerleading tryouts were held Monday night after school in the gymnasium. Joyce Dibble, Karo Gavin, Karen Pease, Monica Menion and Noreen Thorp will lead the Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad.

The Varsity games will find Donna Brown, Diana Thorp, Martha Lynch, Jean Harvey, Reta Dixon, Gail Bronson and Kathy Shellman leading the cheers. Congratulations girls!

Seniors To Present Play

Andover Seniors are in the final stages of rehearsals for their annual presentation, a three act comedy, "That's My Cousin" by Gordon Kurtz. The story centers around two cousins, Kitty Drake (Jean Harvey) and Adele Warren (Donna Brown) who inherit a dude ranch at Cross Roads Canyon, Colorado.

Kitty, the more impetuous cousin, resigns her job and takes the first bus west. Her high hopes burst when she finds that the inheritance is a defunct ranch but she is not daunted by this for long. She determines to put the ranch on a paying basis and being resourceful, she looks about for the necessary capital and discovers it in Carleton Up de Graff (Ralph Weber) the local banker's son. In him she finds the perfect for her enterprize. With Carleton a co-signer, she negotiates a plan at his father's bank and transforms her inheritance into an attractive dude ranch.

To entice guests, Kitty names it Uranium Dude Ranch and mail out brochures promising all guests who discover uranium, a stake it and take it policy with the ranch claiming half. This brings Sheriff Henshaw (Robert Joyce) in the interest of the Post Office. Her brochures have been confiscated for false advertising.

However, a New York newspaper ad brings four young girls (Elaine Burch, Martha Lynch, Marcie Middaugh, and Denna McCormick) and Harriet Baker (Bonnie Nevol) who is husband hunting.

Adele arrives with her friend Laura Hunter (Debra Dunham) to help Kitty in managing the ranch. Things look even brighter when Tullina La Gallimore, (Kathryn Shellman) a television actress makes her reservations. This captivating comedy has romance and adventure of one chuckling situation after another.

Other members of the cast are: Diana Thorp, Diane Lehman, William Greene, Harold Fauzey, Larry Cook, William Merrick, Robert Cornell, Steve Roeske and extras William Clarke, Maxson Clarke, Robert Wilson, Robert Congelli and Gene Rosintoski, Wm. Bixby.

We highly recommend this fast moving, gay comedy to be staged at the A.C.S. auditorium, Friday Nov. 5th at 8:00 p. m. It is directed by Mrs. Kessler and is being produced by special arrangements with Dramatist-Play Service of New York City.

Purple And White

Last Thursday a small crowd of Andover spectators saw their team lose their last home game of the season to a hard fighting Scio team 2-1. At the half the score was 0-0 with both teams looking for a goal. Cowley got Scio started with a penalty kick early in the third period. Andover countered minutes later with a score on the toe of senior Bob Joyce. Scio's Mike Boyce put away a shot late in the last quarter, from which Andover couldn't recover in the remaining time.

Andover At Alfred-Almond

Monday night saw Andover battling for their second victory of the year. The Panthers didn't win it but, they didn't lose it either. At the end of two overtime periods Andover walked off the field with a 2-2 tie placed on their record.

Alfred - Almond scored first early in the second period, off the toe of Sherman. Andover countered with a goal by John Billings at 9:27 of the same period. Bob Joyce added another goal at 11:35, to lead at half time 2-1. Late in the last period Alfred - Almond scored a penalty kick to tie the score 2-2. Both teams battled out the two overtime periods to a tie.

Although Andover ended up with a 1-7-2 record, they played fine ball in almost all of their games. Andover's only win of the year was the "crushing" defeat of first place Fillmore 4-2.

Congratulations boys for a fine season of soccer. Good Luck, Seniors, and hope you can attend some Panther soccer games next year.
