

STATE OF NEW YORK DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Albany, October 1, 1965

Pursuant to the provisions of section seventy-two of the Election Law, the following Propositions Numbers One, Two and Three, Question Number One, and proposed amendments to the State Constitution Numbers One to Nine, inclusive, will be submitted to the voters of the State for approval or disapproval, at the General Election on November second, nineteen hundred sixty-five.

JOHN P. LOMENZO, Secretary of State

Abstract of Proposition Number One

Chapter 176 of the Laws of 1965, to be known as the Pure Water Bond Act, authorizes, upon terms and conditions to be imposed by the Legislature, the creation of a state debt in the amount of one billion dollars to provide monies to be used, upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may impose, for the construction, reconstruction and improvement of sewage treatment facilities to combat water pollution. The statute provides for the submission to the voters at the 1965 general election of the following proposition or question: "Shall chapter one hundred seventy-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, known as the pure waters bond act, authorizing the creation of a state debt in the amount of one billion dollars to provide monies to combat water pollution by the construction of sewage treatment facilities, be approved?"

Form of Submission of Proposition Number One

Shall chapter one hundred seventy-six of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, known as the pure waters bond act, authorizing the creation of a state debt in the amount of one billion dollars to provide monies to combat water pollution by the construction of sewage treatment facilities, be approved?

Abstract of Proposition Number Two

Chapter 377 of the Laws of 1965 authorizes the creation of an additional state debt in the aggregate amount of $200,000,000 by the issuance and sale of the State Comptroller of state bonds, the proceeds of which are appropriate to the State Division of Housing and Community Renewal, which amount may be loaned to municipalities and local housing authorities for slum clearance and low rent housing projects. This proposition would also increase the maximum amount of annual cash payments for housing subsidies by $9,000,000, to a total of $53,000,000. Such subsidies are paid by the State to a municipality or a housing authority to assure the low-rent character of public housing projects. The statute provides for the submission to the voters at the 1965 general election of the following proposition or question: "Shall chapter three hundred seventy-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, providing for an increase of nine million dollars in the maximum aggregate amount of state periodic subsidies for the payment of which in any one year contracts may be outstanding pursuant to the public housing law and authorizing the creation of additional state debt and the sale of state bonds in the aggregate amount of two hundred million dollars for slum clearance and low rent housing purposes under and pursuant to article eighteen of the constitution, be approved?"

Form of Submission of Proposition Number Two

Shall chapter three hundred seventy-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five, providing for an increase of nine million dollars in the maximum aggregate amount of state periodic subsidies for the payment of which in any one year contracts may be outstanding pursuant to the public housing law and authorizing the creation of additional state debt and the sale of state bonds in the aggregate amount of two hundred million dollars for slum clearance and low rent housing purposes under and pursuant to article eighteen of the constitution, be approved?

Abstract of Proposition Number Three

Chapter 1072 of the Laws of 1965 authorizes an increase of $13,500,000 in the maximum aggregate amount of State subsidies for the payment of which contracts for low rent housing and urban renewal purposes may be outstanding in any one year, of which amount not more than $53,550,000 shall be with respect to contracts for payments to assist in achieving and maintaining the low rent character of the projects all such contracts to be subject to the approval by the Comptroller and the Attorney General as to their form. The statute provides for the submission to the voters at the 1965 general election of substantially the following proposition or question: "Shall chapter one thousand seventy-two of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five entitled 'An act to amend the public housing law, in relation to state subsidies, increasing by $1,500,000 the maximum aggregate amount of state subsidies for the payment of which in any one year contracts may be outstanding for low rent housing and urban renewal purposes, and providing for submission to the people of the proposition or question therefor to be voted upon at the general election to be held in November 1965' be approved?"

Shall chapter one thousand seventy-two of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five entitled "An act to amend the public housing law, in relation to state subsidies, increasing by $1,500,000 the maximum aggregate amount of state subsidies for the payment of which in any one year contracts may be outstanding for low rent housing and urban renewal purposes, and providing for submission to the people of the proposition or question therefor to be voted upon at the general election to be held in November 1965" be approved?"

Form of Submission of Proposition Number Three

Shall chapter one thousand seventy-two of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-five entitled "An act to amend the public housing law, in relation to state subsidies, increasing by thirteen million five hundred thousand dollars the maximum aggregate amount of state subsidies for the payment of which, in any one year, contracts may be outstanding for low rent housing and urban renewal purposes", be approved?"

Abstract of Question Number One

This question is submitted pursuant to Chapter 371 of the Laws of 1965, which provides that the question: "Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" shall be submitted to the electors of the State at the 1965 general election, and that if a majority of the voters answer the question in the affirmative, a convention shall be held the delegates thereto to be elected at the 1966 general election.

Form of Submission of Question Number One

Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number One

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to require the Governor to submit to the Legislature the Executive Budget, i.e., a budget of expenditures to be made before the close of the ensuing fiscal year and estimated revenues on or before the 1st day of February in each year following the year fixed by the Constitution for the election of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and on or before the second Tuesday following the first day of the of the annual meeting of the Legislature in all other years.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number One

4-H News

The Valley Brook 4-H held a meeting on October 23rd at 2 p. m., to 4 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Wellman Burch. The President Kathy Spencer called the meeting to order. We saluted the Flag. Roll Call was taken and seven members were present. The President introduced and welcomed our guest, Linda McLean. We were happy to have her with us. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer gave her report. Fire prevention reports were turned in to the secretary. The meeting was then turned over to the Junior Leader, Betty Burch. She taught the first lesson on the ABC's of Foods. In this lesson the Junior Leader demonstrated how to set cover. Each member in turn also had to give a demonstration. We also talked about good and bad table manners. We discussed the rules that a good cook should know. At the closing of our meeting we gave the 4-H Club Pledge. Betty Burch made the motion we adjourn the meeting, the motion was seconded by Ena Matison. This was voted on and the President adjourned the meeting. Betty Burch, News Reporter
