

Hi Herald Continued Student Council

The regular meeting of the Student Council was held December 3, 1965 with the following matters discussed:

It was decided that the Andover Student Council would have a newsreporter for the District No. Thirteen newsletter. An election was held and Jean Harvey was selected reporter. She will choose her own committee to assist her in this job. It also was voted unanimously that the Andover Student Council would join the New York State organization.

A committee was set up to give suggestions for the revision of the Student Council. The chairman, Camilla Wallace, will be assisted by Linda Middaugh and Denise Collins. They must submit their report to Student Council by the next meeting.

Also, a committee was set up to investigate the activities that could be credit-bearing. Students participating in these activities would be able to drive at night with a Junior Operator's license and a card from the advisor of the activity saying that it was credit-bearing and he was participating in it. The chairman of this committee is Bill Greene. A report must be submitted to the Student Council by next meeting.

Here I am again bringing you what you've been waiting for, all the gossip and juicy bits from Andover.

There was a good turn out at the game Friday night. Those spotted were D. C., and J. B., S. R., and M. C., J. M., and G. R. B. G., and D. D., and several others. How was the balcony kids?

On Saturday night there were a few sighted at the Future Nurses Dance. I noticed that M. M., and D. A., C. J., and J. H., S. M., and D. M., D. B., and D. P., K. G., and C. U., K. S., D. M., N. H., and L. M., were there having a good time. Seems that some others who weren't at the dance got quite a surprise! Is that right?

How was the movie S. R., and M. C.? I hear you had fun!!!

Since no one said anything about K. J.'s party last week, I'll say something about it now. It looked like F. K., and R. L., had a fine time with M. B., and C. K. There were several couples present from Wellsville, too! Also spotted were J. P., and C. J., D. P., and P. C. W., and D. V., M. M., and M. A., J. H., and G. B., and of course lots of others who seemed to just be mingling.

Well, kids I've run out of news for this week but watch out, I'll be back again soon!

Cub News

In the Cub Basketball league last Monday night, the Royals downed the new team in the league, the Warriors, by a score of 28 to 17. Polmateer and McGuire led the Royal scoring with 10 and 13 points. Bob Leonard broke into the scoring column and contributed 2 points to help the Royal cause. High scorers for the Warriors were Thompson with 8 points and Buchholz with 7 points.

In the second game the Celtics won a close game over the Lakers by a score of 33 to 29. Grant was high man for the Celtics with 17 points and Miller and McGuire shared scoring honors for the Lakers with 16 and 11 points.

Practice Teacher

This week the students of Andover Central School have noticed some unfamiliar faces in the halls and classes. In case you are wondering who these people are, they are cadet teachers from Alfred University.

Miss Sharie Butts is from Alfred and is studying to be a high school science teacher.

Miss Jessica Newman of New York City plans to become a teacher of high school math.

From Southborough, Mass., is Miss Lois Harrington who is doing her practice teaching in Junior High English.

Douglas Printz of Rochester, a cadet teacher in art, is studying to be an industrial designer and educator.
