Catherine Cadden and Daniel Smith Married

A double ring ceremony at 11 a. m. in St. Peter and Paul Church in Jamestown on Saturday, January 10, 1970, united Miss Catherine Cadden and Daniel Smith in marriage.

Miss Cadden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Cadden of Jamestown and Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Smith of Andover.

Maid-of-honor was a schoolmate of the bride's, Miss Madeline Marganti of Jamestown and best man was Michael Smith, brother of the groom of Andover. Flower girl was Theresa Cadden, sister of the bride.

The service was in the form of a contemporary folk mass said by Rev. Thomas Buyers. Guitar players provided background music of folk hymns and arranged psalms.

The bride wore a street length dress of Chantilly lace. The dress was accented with a satin ribbon empire waist long lace sleeves and a cowl neck. The cowl neck was trimmed with a bit of designed lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses with a touch of green foliage.

The bride's attendants were attired in lace trimmed red velvet dresses. They also carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Jamestown High School and presently a freshman at Jamestown Community College. The groom is a graduate of Andover Central School, and an alumni of St. Bonaventure University. He was graduated with a B.B.A. in Accounting and is presently employed by Seidman and Seidman CPA in Jamestown. He is a member of the U. S. Army Reserve.

Forty guests greeted the newlyweds at the Vintage House for an afternoon reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will honeymoon in Binghamton during her semester recess. They are presently at home at 863 Prendergast Ave., in Jamestown.
