

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

February 17, 1970

Dear Editor:

As one of the members of the County Planning Committee representing the County Legislators, I am aware of the controversy over the proposed Stannards Dam project.

There have been many arguments pro and con concerning this undertaking. This project involves $37.5 million dollars and could have a tremendous impact on the development of the Southern part of the County in the Wellsville area.

At a meeting held last Thursday night (2/12), the Allegany County Planning Board, after lengthy discussion with planning and town boards involved, went on record as favoring a continued study of the Stannards development. The committee will submit a resolution to our board of legislators to this effect.

The County Planning Board made the decision for continued study mainly because it would be conducted at no cost or obligation to the County. I am keeping an open mind on this proposal — and I urge you residents of the County to do the same. This study does not obligate us, and I, for one, would like to have more questions answered. After the study, there will be time for us to decide whether the project would be a growth factor for the county or whether it is undesirable.

You can rest assured I will do my best to promote any activities or endeavor which will make our district and county a better place to live. I am especially interested in the local costs (State and County) which would vitally affect all our people.

Yours for better government.
LEE R. Ryan

In Memorium

In loving memory of my son and dearest brother, Delbert K. Kemp who passed away two years ago today, February 20, 1968.

What we would give to see you smile,
To sit with you and talk awhile,
The blow was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with a son and brother we love so dear.

We always sit and think of you
The things you used to say and do.
And wonder why you had to die,
Without a chance to say good-bye.
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still
But your death has left a loneliness

This world can never fill
Its lonesome here without you
There is such a vacant space
For we never hear your footsteps
Or see your smiling face.
As we loved you, so we missed you,
In our memories you are near Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.
