Trooper Entrance Exam To Be Held April 18

An entrance examination for appointment as a trooper in the New York State Police will be held on April 18 at 15 locations throughout the state.

Superintendent William E. Kirwan indicated that several hundred appointments are expected to be made from the list of eligibles resulting from those attaining a passing grade of 75 percent or more. The examination is the first for trooper candidates in two years.

Applications and information about the work of the New York State Police may be obtained from any State Police station or by writing to the State Police, State Campus, Albany, N. Y. 12226. A postcard request is sufficient.

Upon returning applications, which must be postmarked not later than midnight, April 11, prospective candidates will be advised where to report for the test.

Appointments will be made at a starting salary of $8,631, with increments bringing the maximum pay for troopers to $11,084. Substantially higher salaries are paid to members attaining officer rank.

The written examination will be held in public buildings in the Albany, Bayshore, Binghamton, Buffalo, Elmira, Glens Falls, Middletown, New York City, Olean, Plattsburgh, Poughkeepsie, Rochester, Syracuse, Utica and Watertown areas.

Candidates must be at least 21 years old and not have passed their 29th birthday at time of appointment. Persons within three months of their 21st birthday and otherwise eligible may take the examination and those over 29 may subtract time spent in military service up to six years of needed to come within the 29-year limit.

Requirements include United States citizenship, a high school or equivalency diploma, a height of at least 5 feet 9 inches, with weight in proportion to build, and good health. Candidates also must have a New York State operators' license at time of appointment, with a satisfactory driving record, and have nothing in their background indicating character defects.

The written examination will cover general subjects testing the general knowledge, intelligence and aptitudes of the applicant for a law enforcement career. Candidates will be selected in order of their score for further qualifying requirements, including a physical examination, an oral interview to determine mental alertness, initiative, personality, judgment and appearance and a background investigation.
