

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Willover - Kelly

The United Methodist Church of Greenwood was the setting for the wedding of Miss Susan Jenny Kelly and Mr. Larry Neil Willover, Saturday, March 21, 1970.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fannie Kelly of Painted Post, New York, and the bridegroom is the son of District Principal and Mrs. Richard M. Willover of 3378 E. Main Street, Attica, New York. Mr. Willover is a former Coach at Greenwood Central School and Principal at Troupsburg Central and Friendship Central Schools.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 1 P. M. by the Rev. Gerald Wolter, Pastor. The altar was decorated with baskets of white snapdragons and red carnations. Mrs. Gerard Rifenburg of Del Rio, Texas, sister of the bridegroom was organist.

The bride wore a floor length A-line icy green satin gown with long lace sleeves. Her head veil was fastened with a bow and she carried long stemmed red and pink bridal roses.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Marsha Nearing of R.D. 2, Painted Post. She wore a floor length icy pink satin gown with Empire waist and headpiece of English illusion veil fastened with a bow. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Karen Goldbourn of 159 Victory Highway, Painted Post, and Miss Leslie Ann Willover, of Attica, sister of the bridegroom. The also wore floor length gowns of icy pink satin with Empire waist. Their headpieces were short veils with pink bows. They all carried two long stemmed red and pink roses.

Mr. Dale Tones of Victory Highway, Painted Post, was best man. Ushers were Donald Day of Wayne and David Box of 115 West Fourth Street, Corning, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony in the Church dining room, decorated with white wedding bells and blue and white streamers. Mrs. Louise VanSkiver of the Canisteo Road, catered the reception and made the tiered wedding cake. A rehearsal dinner was given Friday night for eighteen at the Birmingham-Burd Legion Social Room, prepared and served by the Legion Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Burnice Osmin.

The bride wore a gray and white checked coat dress with red accessories for the wedding trip to Angola, Indiana, where the couple will live.

The bride attended school in Corning. The bridegroom is a graduate of Attica Central School, Alfred Ag-Tech, in Diesel Engineering. He is presently enrolled in Tri-State College at Angola, Indiana.

Guests attended from Attica, Hinsdale, Jasper, Corning, Horseheads, Painted Post, Port Allegre and Smethport, Pa., Ohio, Indiana, Florida and Texas.

Greenwood Central School held its annual local speaking contest, Tuesday, March 24 at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Contestants were Neil Brewster, Margaret Dempsey, Valerie Edwards, Robert Graves, Valencia Green, Steven Hunt, Starla Jackson, Vicki Kinner, Mark Woodworth, and Neil Woodworth.

Judges of the contest were Mrs. Stanley Murray, Mrs. Sara Squires, Father Otto Vogt, Mrs. Jennie White and Rev. Gerald Wolter.

The two winners will represent Greenwood at the County School Master's Speaking Contest to be held at Greenwood on March 31 at 10 A. M.

The Spring issue of the Fulcrum, Greenwood Central School paper, was distributed last week. The Library notes reported that Jeanne Hanbach of the Seventh Grade and Randy Cornell of the Fifth Grade, had donated paperback books to the Library. Mr. and Mrs. William Glover gave about fifty books from their library — reference books and fiction. An average of 75 high school students use reference books in the Library annex daily.

New volumes recently placed on the annex shelves are: 18 volumes of "Our Wonderful World" (1969); 20 volumes of "American People's Encyclopedia" (1969); 20 volumes of "New Book of Knowledge" (1970); 1 Larousse Encyclopedia of Animal Life; 1 Encyclopedia of Space; 10 volumes of "Our Living World of Nature".

The Elementary Library added 16 volumes of "The Children's Hour", stories and poems by 650 best authors. Memorial books have been given by the OES and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Probasco and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gent of Whitesville for Mr. Jerry Burd; by the Past Grand Officers of Masons for Mr. Archie Stephens; by OES for Mr. Jay Hoskins (father of Mrs. Rollins); and by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Manion and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick two books for Mrs. Mildred Rogers. More High School and Elementary students are reading books and attending the Library.

In February nineteen students went to Canisteo to sing or play solos and were given ratings. The Junior High All-County Concert was held at Addison, March 6 - 7. Three girls represented Greenwood, Patty Mills and Cindy Wallace sang in the Choir and Susan Dennison was selected to play cornet in the Band. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Mills, Jr., Mrs. Della Allhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace attended the concert.

April 3 and 4 six high school girls will attend the Senior High All-County rehearsing at Painted Post. The concert will be at the Corning Glass Center Saturday evening. Marlene Meehan, Starla Jackson, Betty Burley and Anne McCormick will sing in the Choir. Karen Smith and Maria Murphy will play baritone and clarinet in the Band.

New Band equipment has been purchased including 4 new snare drums, 2 new tenor drums, 1 bass drum all with silver sparkle. Most of the money has been earned by the Band this year.

There was a full house Friday night to hear the musical "Annie Get Your Gun." Mrs. Rollins and the cast is to be commended on a very good performance. Betty Burley, as Annie and Steve Harkender as Frank, did excellent character parts and singing. Mr. Dungen and the Sixth Grade, designed and painted the scenery. Mr. Atherton and the boys built the frames needed for the scenery. Mrs. Cook and Mr. Brownson worked behind the scenes. There was a big pre-ticket sale and first prize went to Sally Lamhimer and second prize to Denise Higgins.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School for the week of March 22 - 26 —

MONDAY — Goulash, Fruit Salad, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Raisin Bar, choc or white Milk.

TUESDAY — Ravioli, 3 Bean Salad or Buttered Beans, Cheese Sandwich, Apple Crisp, choc or white Milk.

WEDNESDAY — Juice, Hamburg with Roll, Buttered Corn, Glorified Rice, Milk choc or white.

THURSDAY — Potato Salad, Deviled Eggs, Jello, Cup Cakes, Milk choc or white.

Greenwood Central School will close for Good Friday.

Mrs. Kathleen O'Brien was substitute teacher the second week in March for Mrs. Virgil Streeter in the Third Grade. Mrs. Streeter served on Jury Duty and was released from further duty Monday. Mrs. Nathan Edwards of West Union served on the same day.

Rodney Cook took two bus loads of school children Wednesday to see the moving of Principal Wright's new home. Mr. and Mrs. William O'Hargan also moved their home back on their lot to make way for the new road.

The State drilled a new well for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greene. The well on their lot was at the back corner in the way of the new State Cut-Off.

The combined choir of Andover

Presbyterian and Methodist and the Greenwood Methodist Churches, presents the Easter Cantata "Hallelujah, What A Savior" at 7:30 Thursday evening in the Greenwood United Methodist Church and at 7:30 Friday evening in the Andover Presbyterian Church. Rev. Gerald Wolter is the Narrator and a soloist, also our choir director Mrs. Barbara Duke. Five from Greenwood practiced in the Andover Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon and Wednesday night. The public is invited to attend either concert.

Easter Sunday, Elder John H. Wolf of Clare, Mich., will be the guest speaker at the 11:00 A. M. Worship Service at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Elder Wolf had ministered to the church previously when his family lived near Niagara Falls. Elder Wolf and family will be week-end guests of Elder and Mrs. Michael Hartwig and family. A Special Service will be held at 8 P. M. Friday. Members will examine the apparent absence or presence of divinity in society.

The Rev. Richard Snively, Director of Youth for Christ, spoke Palm Sunday at 11:30 A. M. at the West Jasper Wesleyan Methodist Church. Members met with the Beuna Visto Wesleyan Church in the evening. Easter Sunday the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. James E. Bence of Elmira District Superintendent for the Central New York District of the Wesleyan Church.

Mrs. Rose Harrison was moved Monday, March 16 from the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville to the Bath Infirmary. She was a patient at the Jones Memorial Hospital for over a month. Sunday afternoon Mrs. Jerry Burd and Mrs. M. D. Rogers called on Mrs. Harrison at the Infirmary. She was attending Worship Service.

Mrs. Ernest Scribner and Mrs. Clayton Scribner called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edwards in Hornell. Mrs. Clayton Scribner went to her Doctor last Monday.

There was a misunderstanding and the visit of the Blood Bank at Somers Hall in Canisteo was changed from Friday to Monday afternoon.

Eight members of the Women's Club met at the United Methodist Church Thursday afternoon for a cleaning bee.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller of Rochester came Thursday night and Mrs. Miller spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Banks.

Mrs. George Bassett could not go with her husband T/Sgt. Bassett to the Philippines and is staying at San Bernardino, California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Angello spent the week-end at Bradford Pa., with their family.

Miss Diane Smith and Miss Patricia Hanbach, students at S.U.C. at Geneseo, arrived home Wednesday for two weeks Easter vacation with their families.

Keith Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brewster of West Greenwood, came home Friday from Houghton College and has this week for Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith daughters, Diane, Karen and Denise of Rexville, and Mrs. Ruth York of Andover, left Wednesday for Lamoni, Iowa, to spend Easter with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Smith and daughter. They will be gone a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White returned home Friday. They went to Florida with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reimann of Knoxville, Pa. Their brother Clayton Reimann had a stroke last year and one side is paralyzed.

Mrs. George Angello took an Insurance course at Alfred this winter. Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Angello went to Rochester where she took exams for Brokers Insurance.

William Meehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meehan of Rexville,

Mr. and Mrs. Jon R. Cook

Cook - Koehler Recite Wedding Vows Mar. 14

Miss Kathleen Marie Koehler daughter of Mrs. Herman Koehler of Greenwood Hill, Andover R.D., and the late Mr. Koehler became the bride of Jon Raphael Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cook of Greenwood Road on Saturday March 14, 1970 in the Andover United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Gerald Wolter, Pastor performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p. m. before an altar decorated with baskets filled with white carnations and roses. Hazel Burgett, also of Andover, organist played traditional wedding music. Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Koehler, the bride elected an A-line floor length gown of white crepe, featuring an Empire waist with overlay of lace the round neckline fastened with pearl buttons. A chapel train attached at the back with white crepe bow, created a full effect. Her finger-tin veil of illusion fell from a crown of iridescent beads. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Miss Jane Cook, sister of the bridegroom, as maid-of-honor, wore a pastel yellow gown of silk organza over taffeta with Empire waistline. The A-line skirt was trimmed with green and yellow tulle, and a green velvet bow was fashioned at the back of the waistline. She wore a matching pillbox and veil and carried a nosegay of carnations and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Mills, cousin of the bride, and Miss Nancy Hyland. Sara Jennings niece of the bride was flower girl. The attendants wore gowns similar to the maid of honor's in mint green with matching headpieces and carried nosegays of carnations and yellow roses. The flower girl, also in mint green, carried a basket filled with spring flowers.

Larry Cook was best man for his brother. Ushers were Donald Swartz, brother-in-law of the bride, and Robert Dougherty.

Mrs. Koehler wore a pink santon dress, embroidered trimmed at the neck and hemline, gold accessories and a corsage of carnations and roses. The mother of the bridegroom chose a green and white print knit with silver accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Mass. Club, Wellsville, attended by 150 guests from Greenwood, Wellsville, Hornell, Webster, Elmira, Buffalo, Alfred and New Jersey.

On their return from a trip to the Adirondacks, Mr. and Mrs. Cook will reside in Andover.

The bride, a graduate of Greenwood Central School, is a cashier at the Market Basket Store. Mr. Cook, a graduate of Andover Central School, is a field electrician employed by Worthington Corporation.

Prnuptial affairs included a variety shower given by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Jane Cook and a rehearsal party given by the bridegroom's parents in their home.

Lemmer Chiropractic Office

Eugene J. Lemmer, D. C.

Hours By Appointment

(CLOSED THURSDAY)

Telephone 324 3314

10 E. Washington Street
Hornell, N. Y.

A tree is only as healthy as its root system, the anchoring, nourishing network underneath the soil.