LIBRARY WEEK

April 12 - April 19 is National Library Week. Although many of us take our libraries for granted, we often don't realize their true importance.

The library is a busy workshop where persons of all ages can seek knowledge. A library makes it possible for us to share the experiences of many other persons by reading about their thoughts and achievements. The library is sometimes called "the memory of the human race." It is like a giant brain that remembers all that scientists, historians, poets, philosophers and others have thought and learned. It is also a place where the experience of the past can meet the needs of the present.

The library provides several community services. It offers a reading program and it answers the questions which arise from a child's curiosity. It provides up-to-date information in all fields with collections of books, newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, photographs, phonograph records and motion pictures. Some libraries possess collections of books in Braille for blind persons.

Because of the wealth of information contained in the library, everything must be well organized. The librarian is skilled in knowing how to explain to you the location of the information you want whether it be for a trip or simply for pleasure.

Visit your library and take advantage of all the worthwhile material available to you!

Keep On Buying Savings Bonds

Feature

by Chris Bergerson

In a very short two weeks the Senior Class will be leaving for their class trip to Washington, D. C. The Senior Class this trip symbolizes thirteen years of hard work and effort. We are about to embark on a trip that we shall remember for many years to come. We will fondly remember our friends who made the trip so enjoyable, our teachers who chaperoned us so that we could go, and most of all, our parents who helped to make us what we are today.

We are looking forward to seeing Washington and we hope to see as much of Washington as we can in the short time we are there. However much we see we shall always remember our trip with many fond memories of friends, parents and teachers.

Do you think 18 year olds could have the right to vote? Cindy Preston - Yes, because they're just as qualified to vote intelligently as 21 year olds. Greg Shellman - Yes, but I think there should be an examination on current affairs in politics.

Mr. Barden - That's a hard question but I believe any service man or married couple 18 years of age should have the right to vote.

Mike Jackson - No, because they aren't responsible enough. John Fanton - If you are old enough to fight, you're old enough to vote.

Mr. Kessler - No. Diane Stephens - Yes, if they're old enough to go to Viet Nam they're old enough to vote and intelligent enough too.

Mr. Russell - Unfortunately no. But there are some 21 year olds that couldn't vote either.

Kathy Gavin - Yes. Today we are taught about the government and how it is run. I feel that we are more qualified to vote than the older people and we should have the right.

Mr. Brace - Yes. There are 18 year olds who are intelligent and capable enough. These are the concerned ones who would make the effort of registering and getting to the polls. The people who are interested and therefore informed will make the effort to vote.

Grace Herr - Yes, I think they should, but only if they're mature enough to know what they're doing and they should be at that age.

Mike Deming - No. Most 18 year olds are not mature enough.

Girls' Volleyball At Friendship

by Brenda Preston

Tuesday, March 31, Mrs. Codispoti "gathered up her girls" and took them to Friendship for a volleyball game.

On the way to Friendship, she divided her "troops" up into three teams.

The first team consisted of Dawn Burrows, the captain; Jeanne Atwell, Sue Boyer, Roberta Scott, Carol Merrick, and Kim Richardson. The second team included Brenda Preston, the captain; Eileen Atwell, Charlene McCormick, Karen Davis, Barb Kemp, and Sharon Lewis. The third team included Neila Potter, the captain; Yvonne Mattison, Ruth Tuttle, Kathy Spencer, Susan Church, and Carol Simons.

The two schools we were up against were Friendship and Rushford. The first and second teams lost but, the third came up with a victory. For the fourth game a special team was chosen. They also lost. The fifth game proved to be another loss.

Sorry girls, better luck next time.

Roving Reporter

by Candy Congelli

This week as Roving Reporter I thought I would ask a few students what their favorite word was and what it meant to them. Here are some of the replies:

Debbie Baker - Happy means contentment
Maureen Thorp - male means companionship
George Hurtado - girls means no explanation
Candy Harvey - food means happiness

Judy Bergerson - Bingo it's a private joke
Dale Clark - Girls - mean lots of love

Chris Bergerson - fulfillment means doing everything you are capable of doing and doing it well.

Miss Sullivan - that's your problem -- to anyone who complains to her.

Jim Howland - emancipated - Jim doesn't know what that means.

These are the thoughts of some Andover Central School people. Some serious and some not. However, either way they reveal something about each individual.

Roving Reporter

by Eileen Atwell

If I had the power to grant you any wish, what would it be, and why?

When I asked this question to the following people, these are the replies I received:

Priscilla Billings - To be seven years older, because that's "his" age.

Linda Smith - To have Racquel Welch's face, because I've already got her figure.

John Hyland - ? would stay in Florida, because I'm having too much fun.

Diane Stephens - I would like to be about three feet tall, because then I could ride race horses and I'd know which ones to bet on.

Kim Richardson - I'd like to live Friday night over again.

Rod Brown - To take a certain girl in Hornell away from a certain boy who is close to me. Her name is, S - C - !

Brenda Preston - I'd like to be like Joe Schweigart, because he doesn't care about anything.

Connie Baker - I'd like something that was tall, dark, and Italian.

Mary Bird - I'd like all the answers.

Susan Church - I wish all the Roving Reporters would drop dead.

It is estimated that cooking for a family of four adds 4 - 1/2 pounds of water to the air in a house each day.

Tax Refunds Are Delayed When Taxpayers Forget To Sign

A total of 2,861 Buffalo District taxpayers waiting for refund checks are instead getting their Federal income tax returns back because they failed to sign them.

An income tax return is a legal document and to be valid must be signed before the Internal Revenue Service can process it and issue a refund, John E. Foley, District Director, Internal Revenue, Buffalo, said today. Signatures of both husband and wife are required on joint returns, he added.

To help reduce the number of missing signatures, IRS has sent some 65 million taxpayers blank tax forms that highlight the signature lines in red ink.

Incorrect or missing Social Security numbers are also holding up tax refunds.

So far this year 3,650 refunds of Buffalo District taxpayers have been delayed because of a Social Security number error.

Use of the preaddressed name label, which includes the Social Security number, will insure proper identification and speed up processing, he noted.

Other taxpayer errors or failures to follow instructions that accompany tax returns and schedules are also holding up refunds.

So far mistakes in arithmetic have caused delay in sending 16,769 refunds to Buffalo District taxpayers. Another 14,111 persons used the wrong tax table.

The IRS Service Center in Andover, Massachusetts has processed 355,539 refunds so far this year worth $85,804,463.66. Mr. Foley reports.

More than 23 million people, or about 30 per cent of the total United States work force, are employed in agribusinesses.

Egg protein is so near perfection that scientists often use it as a standard to measure the value of protein in other foods.
