Presbyterian Church To Have Guest Speaker

On Sunday, April 12th, the Presbyterian Churches of Andover and Belmont will have a guest preacher the Rev. Paul Hostetter.

His sermon topic will be "Agin, Who Isn't?" Rev. Hostetter is the director of the Health and Welfare Program of Geneva Presbytery. This program is a pilot program within the United Presbyterian Church.

Its major efforts are aimed at attempting to make the church a much more effective witness to the problems of the Aging.

His efforts have been directed towards volunteer, "self-help" programs on the part of the churches. All members of the community are invited to attend the services at either church.
