Since the BOCES Voc-Tech. programs are designed for those who will seek employment immediately after high school and will usually prevent one from attaining a regents diploma or taking regent courses, the Board therefore feels that college preparatory students should not elect a BOCES Program.

The Strohmann's Bros. Co., bid for bakery products was accepted for the 1970-71 school year.

Charles Smith is seeking reelection as Board Member. His term expires June 30. Election will be at the Annual Meeting.

The Board made a decision to eliminate dental hygiene, driver education and to cut agriculture to 10 months through BOCES.

Linda Bassett was approved as a first grade teacher for next year. Due to increased enrollment it is necessary to have two sections in this grade.

The State Auditors report for the years beginning 1960 and ending 1969 was reviewed and accepted.

The Board was informed that an outdoor bulletin board has been ordered to be paid with the money left by the 1961 and 1968 classes.
