Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Allen known as "Doc" by his many friends observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 21, 1970 from two until four o'clock at the Andover Masonic Temple.

The reception, attended by approximately 175 guests, was given by the family. Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan of Cobleskill, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Allen of Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Acor of Orlando, Florida. The dining room was decorated with large white bell streamers of yellow and white and several baskets and bouquets of mums, roses and carnations in keeping with the golden anniversary theme.

The table was covered with a white linen table cloth and centered with a large five tiered white wedding cake decorated with white and gold bells and topped with a golden arrangement of bells and the "50" figure. Mrs. Landis Kibbe made the beautiful cake. White lighted tapers in crystal holders flanked the cake.

Nieces of the honored couple Mrs. Jay Allen of Syracuse, presented at the punch bowl and Mrs. Charles Allen of Woodport, presented Mrs. E. J. Allen and the bride.

Mrs. Leonard Allen, of Syracuse, sister-in-law, had charge of the guest book and Mrs. George Ryan a niece of Cobleskill was in charge of the gift table.

Besides guests from Andover and vicinity, out-of-town guests were present from Elmira, Va., Rockaway, Cobleskill, Dansville, LeRoy, Rochester, Mt. Morris, Syracuse, Woodport, Waverlet, Pa., Van, Eldred, Pa. and Alexandria, Va.

Following the reception a family buffet supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Allen.

hope to see all our fans rooting us on in this game!

This Saturday the Redwings travel to Eden, N. Y. to play a 2:00 o'clock game with 1st place Eden of the Lake Shore League. And on Tuesday night, June 30 at 8:15, the Redwings will take on Medina, under the lights at Medina's Veterans Park.

Don't forget the easy rider tickets — only 1 week left to ride away easy on the Mini-Bike. The Redwings are giving away on the 4th of July!
