"They are bright enough to know that serving in the Army is a drag. But they are not bright enough to know that if their fathers had been as bright as they are, they themselves would have baked in ovens. So spoke Al Capp, cartoonist — of 'Lil' Abner', as he explained that he was sick of hearing that rampaging students are the brightest ones on the campus."

"If the students who protest capitalism in this country could be traded for the students in the Iron Curtain countries protesting Communism, maybe all sides could be satisfied." Monroe, N. Y. Photo News.

"If our elected representatives wish to act in good faith, then they should first endeavor to do the job for which they were elected — to effectively represent without thinking whether the vote they cast will be a political issue in the next election. We need representatives who are secure in the knowledge that regardless of the outcome of any coming elections, that they have acted in their opinion in the best interests of their constituents. We haven't seen any of this calibre on the national political scene in a long, long time." Senator Goodell — Please take note!

"Police officers are entitled to a better shake than they have been getting in recent years. Reading the Metropolitan newspapers and watching television, one sometimes gets the impression that the men who are hired to enforce the laws of the land are the villains in the case, and the hoodlums and vandals are the 'good guys' — The time is long overdue for the general public to speak up in support of our officers. We hope and pray that the day will not come when our great land becomes a 'police state' but if it does, it will not be the fault of the officers. The blame will lie squarely with the lawless mobs and the rabble-rousers who seem bent on destroying the very ideals which have given them so much freedom."

"The anatomy of any association or club includes four kinds of bones: (1) with bones — those who will go along with an idea but want someone else to do the work; (2) jaw bones — who talk a lot but do little else; (3) knuckle bones — who knock everything everyone else does; and (4) back bones — who get behind the wheel and do the work."

"A sage remark printed in a local — bulletin arouses deep thought. It said: 'A child cannot read the Bible in school, but is can be read in prison.'"

Red Cross News

Yta negative blood occurs approximately twice in every 1,000 people. According to Dr. Roger Blaisdell, Allegany County Red Cross blood chairman, eight Red Cross blood centers in three areas are equipped to meet this need.

Last fall Griffiths Air Force Base, near Rome, New York requested from the national Rare Blood Donor Registry, three units of group O, Rh positive, Yta negative blood. One unit was furnished by Dr. Allan Kliman of the Massachusetts center, who is a frequent donor of this type of blood. The Rochester Red Cross center had identified two units of Yta negative blood. One had been sent to the national rare blood donor registry and at that time preparations were being made to freeze the unit. However, it was immediately sent to Griffiths. The other unit had been retained in Rochester and shipped directly to the Air Force Base.

Until the initiation of the Rare Blood Donor Registry a year and a half ago, the chances of locating this number of such rare types would have been most unlikely.
