National Pennant Awarded To Seneca Council, Inc.

The National Council, Boy Scouts of America, has awarded a National Camping pennant to the Seneca Council, Inc., for achieving an "A" rating this year at Wolf Creek Scout Camp. The camp inspection was held in July.

The pennant is an award for superior camp rating in excellence of camp maintenance and operation, and is given to only 5% of the Scout camps in the nation who can attain this superior rating.

The Pennant will be proudly flown along with the camp flag, for it is the first time in six years that this honor has been given to Wolf Creek Camp.
