Miss Sandra Lee Ciotti and John VanAllen Hunt, were united in marriage in a late summer wedding at St. Paul's Catholic Church at Salem, Ohio. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tullio Ciotti of Salem, Ohio and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt of Greenwood, N. Y. The double-ring ceremony was performed at a 6 p. m. candlelight service by the Rev. George P. Popovich. The altar was decorated with twin vases of white gladioli and mums, and aisle tapers and satin bows marked the family pews.

The bride was escorted by her father and with Mrs. Ciotti, given in marriage. She was attired in a slipper length ivory peau de soie gown, styled in the Camelot silhouette with beaded Alencon lace detailed bodice, long sleeves with flared cuffs and a Cathedral length train. A matching beaded Camelot headpiece held the bouffant elbow length illusion veil. She carried a modified cascade of white miniature carnations and pink sweetheart roses with ivy foliage and pothos.

Miss Anita Vondra, the bride's college roommate from Cleveland, Ohio, was maid-of-honor. Also Miss Rita Pastorelli of Columbus, Miss Christine Dimko of Salem, cousins of the bride; Miss Kathie Greene of Maumee, another roommate and two junior bridesmaids, Susan and Sandy Hunt, sisters of the bridegroom. They were all dressed alike in pink chiffon floor length gowns with Empire bodices and Venise lace trim and bouffant sleeves. They wore matching pink satin bow headpieces with satin streamers and carried Victorian nosegays of pink asters and sweetheart roses with polycarpus foliage and lavender streamers.

Ronald Greene of Greenwood and Coast Guard College at Governor's Island, was best man. Ushers were James Ciotti, brother of the bride; Terry Hunt, brother of the bridegroom and Norman Parala of Geneva.
