

Mr. and Mrs. William Bixby

Toni L. Jessup and William Bixby Exchange Wedding Vows

The Mansfield Methodist Church was the setting Sunday, August 16, 1970 for the marriage of Miss Toni Lee Jessup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jessup of Trout Run, Pa., to William Bixby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bixby of Andover, N. Y.

The 2 p. m. double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Brenneman before an altar decorated with baskets of white daisies and chrysanthemums, flanked by white candles.

Oliver Sexton of Mansfield, soloist, sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because," with Mrs. Mariam Dickerson of Mansfield, organist, rendering traditional wedding music.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, was attired in a traditional wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta which featured a fitted bodice enhanced by a jewel neckline, with long bishop sleeves and an A-line skirt. Appliques of floral trim adorned the neckline and cuffs. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and aurora crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and daisies with English ivy and ribbon streamers.

Miss Judy Jessup of Trout Run, was Maid-of-Honor for her sister and was attired in a floor length creation of mint green chiffon over taffeta. The gown featured a bodice of lace daisies and was accented by a satin cummerbund with a bow at the back. Her headpiece was a crown of seed pearls and aurora crystals.

Miss Lori Ann Jessup of Trout Run, also a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She chose a petal pink floor length gown and headpiece similar to the maid-of-honor. Both carried cascade bouquets of daisies and rosebuds.

George Jessup, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Terry Scott, cousin of the bride of Wellsville, acted as best man. Ushers were Larry Jessup of Covington, Pa., and Michael Jessup of Trout Run, Pa., brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jessup chose a gray print dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of a gardenia and red rosebuds. Mrs. Bixby chose a two piece blue outfit with white accessories. She wore a gardenia and yellow rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's maternal grandmother selected a green two piece outfit with black accessories.

A reception was held in the church dining room following the ceremony for approximately 100 guests. The buffet table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers in crystal holders.

For their wedding trip through the Pocono Mts., Mrs. Bixby chose a two piece suit of pale green with white accessories and wore a rose corsage.

Mrs. Bixby is a graduate of the Mansfield High School and is now a secretary at Mansfield State College. Mr. Bixby, a graduate of Andover Central School, is a Sgt. in the U.S. Air Force currently stationed at Minot A.F.B., North Dakota.
