

Firemen State Plans For "Fire Prevention Week"

To commemorate "National Fire Prevention Week", the Andover Fire Department will have a "Window Display" at the Vars Pharmacy this week and are announcing a new plan for the rescue of invalids and children in case of fire.

The new fire rescue plan involves distribution of reflecting decals which will be stuck onto the bedroom windows of invalids and children so that they can be easily identified from outside either day or night by local firemen in case of an emergency.

Local Firemen will make a house-to-house canvass with the assistance of Students from the 7th and 8th grades who are cooperating to help the Firemen celebrate "National Fire Prevention Week."

Teams made up of Students and Firemen will meet at the Fire Hall and begin a canvass of the Village starting at 6:30 P. M. Wednesday evening, October 14th.

Team members will be enlisting the co-operation of all Andover residents since the free decals will be given to the head of the household who will be asked to sign for them and assure their participation in the proper display of these decals which might save the life of one of their children or family in the future.

Members of the Andover Fire Department will greatly appreciate the full co-operation of all Andover residents in the "fire rescue plan" which is being instituted by local members at no little expense to them.

It is pointed out by Fire Department members that fire may strike at any time — and — in any home — and no one can tell if — YOU — may be the next victim!

Anyone who should not happen to be contacted during this drive who wishes decals and instructions for their use should contact an active member of the Andover Fire Department.

News That's Print To Fit

Well Folks, after an exceptionally warm summer — it finally happened! Yep, we finally had a killing frost this past week — but, at least it waited until October.

Now, for a few words on the Political Scene. In a News Release from Adam Walinsky, Democratic Candidate for Attorney General, the candidate states: "On the basis of a deliberate statement of policy from the office of Industrial Commissioner Martin P. Catherwood, showing his continued, willful refusal to enforce the provisions of the N. Y. Labor Law. I am calling today on Governor Nelson Rockefeller to remove Commissioner Catherwood from office."

We don't know what this has to do with a constructive platform for the Office of Attorney General — but, we do have a "Letter to the Editor" turned in to us by one of our readers who was rather disturbed over the above candidate mentioned.

In this letter the writer states: "I am appalled and shocked at the un-American attitude of the Democratic candidate for State Attorney General, Mr. Walinsky was quoted in an interview as saying that flag desecration laws are 'utter nonsense'. It is shameful that a candidate for such a high office could make such an unpatriotic statement."

Mr. Walinsky further stated that if he were to win the office of Attorney General, he would have a low regard for enforcing such laws.

It appears that Mr. Walinsky will only enforce those laws that meet with his approval. It is the obligation of the chief legal Officer of New York State to enforce the laws regardless of what his personal opinions may be. — Signed — Anthony Glieco Sr., Williamsville.

Well Folks, draw your own conclusions. Looks as if here is another candidate that is appealing for the "Liberal" vote and is more interested in "gunning down" State appointed Employees than standing up to enforce the laws now on the books!

Personally, we believe that Attorney Louis J. Leffkowitz, who is running for re-election, has done an admirable job over the past years and has done a great deal for the average Taxpayer in the line of consumer protection against fraud.

His latest efforts include protection against "door-to-door" Salesmen; and the unsolicited circulation of credit cards.

In the Buckley — Ottinger — Goodell race for State Senator, in a recent News Release, F. Clifton White, campaign chairman for Buckley charges that: "Senator Goodell has been accused by his own Republican Governor, Nelson Rockefeller, of 'undermining' the President's efforts to achieve peace in Vietnam. He has opposed the Nixon administration on nearly every major issue this year. In his first full year in the Senate, he voted the Democratic Party 54% of the time and with his own party, 33% of the time."

And, in excerpts from an address given by the Hon. Hamilton Fish, who represented the 27th Congressional District for 24 years, and whose son, Hamilton Fish, Jr., currently represents the same district, Mr. Fish states: "This year we face a situation where a Republican Senator, Mr. Goodell has repudiated the Nixon Administration and its policies, and has sought endorsement of the extreme left wing Liberal Party, dominated by old time Socialists — and that is exactly where he belongs on account of his record in Congress, his votes and his speeches."

Proclamation

By The Governor
STATE OF NEW YORK
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

American newspaper journalism began in our country 280 years ago.

Benjamin Harris, a publisher who had fled England after imprisonment for printing a seditious pamphlet, put out in Boston a journal, entitled "Publick Occurrences Both Foreign and Domestic." It did not last long. The type of Governors sent over here from England in those days believed that all printing was dangerous. Consequently, Mr. Harris' effort was suppressed.

The first New York newspaper called "New York Gazette" was founded by William Bradford in 1725. Nine years later, the unforgettable case of John Peter Zenger occurred. It established freedom of the press forever in our country.

The newspapers of America this year have chosen the slogan — "American Newspapers — 200 years of Freedom — 1770's to 1970's." This is indeed an appropriate slogan. It emphasizes the independence of the American press as well as the devotion of the men and women of our newspapers who do their utmost to give the public a fair and true report of world affairs.

Each day millions of people in New York State observe democracy in action just by picking up a newspaper. For a small price they enjoy a look into happenings on the local, state, national and international scenes. They are presented all shades of political and social opinion thru editorials and columns. They respond to the events of the world through letters to the editor. They receive a complete marketing guide through advertising. For the price of a newspaper, the public guarantees its right to know.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nelson A. Rockefeller, Governor of the State of New York, do hereby proclaim October 4 - 10, 1970 as NEWSPAPER WEEK in New York State.

GIVEN under my hand and the Privy Seal of the State of the Capitol in the City of Albany this fifteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy.

BY THE GOVERNOR
NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER

The regular meeting of the Andover Firemen's Auxiliary will be held Wednesday, October 14th at 8 p. m. at the Fire Hall.

Committee for the evening is Mrs. Merle Brown and Mrs. Frank Cahill.

Grange News

Andover Grange No. 1098 will hold a regular meeting at the Grange Hall, Wednesday evening, October 14, at 8:30. Tureen at 7:30.

Members are asked to try to be present.

President Nixon is entitled to the support in the Senate of Republicans — not carping critics, politically unfriendly extremist Liberals, boasting they owe no allegiance to the President and even repudiating any support from him. If our missile sites are not protected, there will be no Republican or Democratic Parties and there will be no America. "For this reason, all Republicans still on the fence should get off and openly support Mr. Buckley for election."

Dear Allens:

After leaving Allegany County on September 17th we have been quite a distance, but not half-way home yet.

We spent a couple of nights at Kane, Pa., then on to LaGrange, Md., where we had a bed changed in the new trailer, also had a T.V. shelf installed over the bed. Came south down through Cincinnati, Ohio, into Kentucky to Fort Boonesboro State Park, Ky. Then in a south easterly direction to this place. Coming through Ohio and Maryland saw plenty of corn and soy beans. In Kentucky more of the same, also plenty of tobacco, some of the tobacco has been cut and is left in the field to cure.

Had some rain in LaGrange Md., also more here last night and cooler.

We plan to leave here tomorrow a. m. go to Knoxville, Tenn., then to Smokemount for a week before going on south.

Yours,

Arthur Burdick

PTA News

The eyes of our nation are focused on PTA this week as President Nixon proclaims October 5 to October 9, as National PTA Week. "An organization which has provided effective leadership, focusing the thinking and action of its membership on problems of urgency and importance. Its thousands of local chapters enable parents and teachers to counsel together on the specific concerns of their own school and community, and to act as informed and understanding citizens", quotes the proclamation.

October is Membership Month for the Andover Central PTA. Parents are urged to attend the October 15th meeting and join.

The Program will be a Panel Discussion on Reading and Study Skills presented by Dr. William Walker of the Education Department of Alfred University; Mrs. Rose Mary Burger, English Department of Andover Central School and Miss Joyce Harris, Remedial Reading of A. C. S. There will be an explanation of the Reading Program at Andover Central School as well as a display of materials used.

Mothers of First Grade students will serve refreshments. All are invited to attend.

Waterfowl Season Now Open

October 5, the opening day of the waterfowl season in most of New York, is now upon us. Exceptions to this date are Long Island, with its more moderate and later migrations, where the season opens on November 18, and on Lake Champlain, where the season opens on October 10 to coincide with that of Vermont across the Lake.

For geese and brant, October 5 marks the beginning of a straight season running through December 13. For the remaining waterfowl it is a split season with the first part ending on November 18 and resuming for a 15-day hunt December 19 through January 2.

Inclusion of two species of ducks, scaup and blue-winged teal, as bonus birds offers those who can identify waterfowl before they shoot, the possibility of some extra hunting after they get their daily limit of three ducks.

The blue-winged teal is an early migrant and often moves south before the season gets well underway. Because of this, it has taken less than its share of hunting pressure and its numbers have increased. Experimental early seasons in the Midwest were successful in harvesting more surplus teal, but also resulted in other protected ducks being killed by hunters who shot first and identified later. During the first nine days of the season, October 5 - 13, two blue-winged teal may be in the hunter's bag in addition to the regular limit of ducks. Four of these teal may be possessed in addition to the regular possession limit during this same time.

The other bonus bird is the scaup. Anytime during both sections of the split season the hunter may have a daily bonus limit of two scaup and a bonus possession limit of four scaup. This is not an across-the-board season, for there are specific waters where these bonus birds may be taken. Generally they can be described as the large upstate waters outside the Forest Preserve; there are some exceptions like Cross Lake and Otsego Lake, so one should confirm local waters before taking bonus scaup.

On Lake Champlain the bonus bag for scaup occurs only during November 1 - 28, while on Long Island there is a special scaup season running from January 9 - 24. Special reduced bag limits still apply to certain species of waterfowl whose reduced populations cannot tolerate the full pressure of a completely open season. These daily bag limits are no more than one black duck, two wood ducks and one canvasback or redhead, and possession limits of no more than two blacks, four woodies and one can or redhead. On Lake Champlain and Long Island, the daily limit is two blacks, with no more than four in possession.

Bag limits for the less-sought-after waterfowl are higher: merganser — five daily and 10 in possession; scoter, eider and oldsquaw — seven daily and 14 in possession; coots — 15 daily and 30 in possession. Even here there are special limits, for the hooded merganser, which is an attractive and rare bird, is given protection and only one may be included in the daily merganser limit and only two may be included in the merganser possession limit.

Of the waterfowl, geese are doing the best. The sensational flights of Canada geese that pass up thru Central and Western New York to thrill the goosewatchers in early April, return in force in October. The daily limit is three geese and the possession limit is six. The brant, a bird primarily of the coastal waters, has a daily and possession limit of six.

Shooting hours for all species of waterfowl are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.
