Firemen Carry Out "Fire Rescue Plan Campaign"

Members of the Andover Volunteer Fire Department carried out their Fire Rescue Plan Program last night despite the inclement weather, assisted by A.C.S. Students.

Around 25 Andover School Students met at the Fire Hall at 8:30 p. m., last night and, after having the program explained to them by the Firemen's Committee, canvassed the Village of Andover with areas assigned to each team.

Most of the groups of Students were composed of two students each and each group carried a signature sheet and the window decals that were given out to families with invalids and children.

The various groups returned to the Fire Hall around 8:00 p. m. and were served donuts and sweet cider while the judging committee were figuring out the winners in the campaign. (The sweet cider was donated by the D. & J. Feed Co.)

Mike Bliss and Jeff Briggs won by having 45 signatures; Ken Geer and Scott Middaugh were 2nd prize winners with 36 signatures; Keith Freeland and
