Andover News
Andover, N. Y.
Dear Editor,

It was very gratifying to see that Andover Central School Students were capable of showing and using good judgement last night in their treatment of Hallowe'en.

Local parents, and young people alike, deserve a great deal of credit for the successful conclusion of another Hallowe'en evening.

I believe that the true spirit of the majority of the ACS Students was displayed when members of the Student Council carried out their planned program in cleaning up the Village Streets today.

This certainly showed that our young people "Do Care" about their environment and Community as exhibited by their efforts in this clean-up program which meant a lot of hard unpleasant work, especially in the rain.

In closing, I would like to point out to the Senior Citizens that when they feel like criticizing our young people — perhaps they would think back to their childhood days and recall some of their "deeds" — well, our local young people really aren't "going to the dogs" after all! Are they?

Sincerely yours,

James B. Mulholland, Mayor

Seniors To Present "Cheaper by the Dozen"

This fresh, founded on fact play is a lifetime opportunity. The humor is genuine and the story has importance.

Dad (Stephen Phelps) is a terrific efficiency expert and it is his firm conviction that, what works in the factory, will work in the home. Despite his daughters' interest in boys and dates, Dad pushes ahead with better organization for this large and delightful family — Anne (Lynn Pantan), Ernestine (Susan Stephens), Martha (Kathleen Gavin), Jackie (Joan Wightman), Lillian (Laurie Collins), Frank (Rodney Brown), Bill (Dan Slade), Fred (Steven Tomm), and Dan (Ronald Godown).

He puts up a chart for the young people to initial after completing each household task, demonstrates how to efficiently take a bath, and appoints a utility officer to levy fines on wasters of electricity. There is an imperative reason for all this training. Dad has a heart condition which he and Mother (Diane Carmody) are keeping a secret. He knows he's on borrowed time and that's why he's doing his best to make his family efficient.

The children, especially the girls, don't understand what's driving Dad nor does he understand them. Anne rebels against Dad who is about to leave for Europe to speak at a World Management Conference. Both are miserable at the lack of understanding between them. Then in a moving scene Dad becomes aware of how much Anne has grown up and at the same time Anne realizes the truth about Dad.

Other supporting members of the cast are Mrs. Fitzgerald (Grace Herr), Dr. Burton (Alex Burr), Joe Seales (Randy Potter), Miss Brill (Patricia Dibble), and Harry (Andrew Gram).

Remember the date — Friday November 13 at 8:00 p. m. at ACS auditorium. Come and enjoy an evening of family entertainment. "Cheaper by the Dozen" is directed by Mrs. Kessler and produced by special arrangements with the Dramatic Publishing Company.

Golden Age Club To Meet Monday, Nov. 9

The Andover Golden Age Club will meet at the Andover Presbyterian Church dining hall on Monday, November 9, for a buffet luncheon at noon. Members are asked to bring a dish to pass and own table service. Names P thru R will be in charge of arrangements. Anyone fifty years and older will be welcomed.

Immunization Clinic To Be Held Nov. 10

Mrs. Linda Lucot announces an immunization clinic will be held at the Andover Central School at 9:00 a. m. on November 10, 1970. Vaccines for protection against Polio, Measles, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Tetanus, Smallpox and German Measles (Rubella) will be given.

Rubella vaccine is available for those children between the ages of one (1) to ten (10) years. It is recommended that parents having children who expect to enter school in 1971 bring their children for the Rubella Vaccine at this time.

As the law requires that each child receive vaccine for Measles, Smallpox, Polio, and German Measles before entering school, it is wise to start a child early on this protective program.

Parents of pre-schoolers who have any questions may call the Allegany County Public Health Nursing Service at (716) 268-7488.
