Pastor Named To Editorial Board

The Rev. Gerald A. Wolter, pastor of the Andover and Greenwood United Methodist Churches, has been named to the editorial board of the paper "The Conference Communicator".

The paper published monthly by the Western New York Conference of the United Methodist Church will report on activities and programs supported by the conference.

The Rev. Mr. Wolter will report for the Olean District. He holds a minor in journalism from the University of Northern Iowa. He has served as executive editor of the "College Eye", weekly newspaper at the University of Northern Iowa; editor of the "Mirror", student newspaper, and the "Sunflower", yearbook at Miltonvale Wesleyan School of Theology. For several years he was editor of the "Evangelist", the Iowa-Minn. Conference newspaper, and was editor of the "Centennial" history of the Iowa Conference.

Currently the Rev. Mr. Wolter is district secretary of interpretation for the United Methodist Church and pastor of the Andover Greenwood parish of the United Methodist church.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to my friends, neighbors and relatives for the cards, gifts, flowers and visitations extended to me while I was in the hospital. Also for the kindnesses extended to my family.
