4th of July Parade Committee Holds First 1970 Meeting

The Andover "Fourth of July Parade Committee" held its first meeting of the year to make plans for next year's parade.

We are once again extending an invitation to any person or organization that is interested in helping us to join our committee. The meetings are held the 3rd Tuesday of the month at the home of Mel Mickie at 7:30 P. M.

John Murray was elected Chairman again this year. Dale Ordway was elected Vice Chairman and Mel Mickie was elected Secretary.

The following committees were set-up for this year:

Publicity and Queen Contest — Larry Ryckman

The Theme Contest — Dave Wightman

Decorations and Auction — Dale Ordway

Parade Set-Up — Frank and Anita Cahill

Our expenses, Prizes, Trophies and Publicity were over $700.00 this year. In order to meet the expenses of the coming year we are planning a Basketball Game and an Auction. These will be set-up at a later date. We would appreciate the cooperation of the public again in helping us to earn this money.

If anyone has anything at this time for the Auction and would like to have it picked up you may call John Murray, 478-4382 — Mel Mickie, 478-4411 — or Dale Ordway, 478-8254.

Redwings vs. Faculty, Friday Nov. 20 at A.C.S.

Don't miss this, greatest array of basketball talent ever assembled under one roof! The Andover Redwings "Baseball Players" vs. the Andover "Faculty Friday, Nov 20 at 8:00 p. m., in the Andover Central Gym.

The Andover "Faculty" is led by 6'5" John Hewes, who averaged over 35 points per game in the Wellsville Community League and 6'4" E. Van tine, who averaged over 20 points per game. Also led by the sharp shooting guards — Paul Fuller, Frank Russell, and Mike Brace, who each averaged over 15 points per game. Slick ball handling "Al" Barden in the backcourt and new comer Art McNall! This is the "Faculty"!

The Andover "Redwings" are lead by Dick "Pistol Pete" Joyce, who averaged over 35 points per game in the Wellsville Community League. Also 6'5" Steve Burr who averaged over 30 points per game in the Hornell League and 6'4" Milt Von Hagn, who averaged over 20 points per game. Also All-Louisiana State forward 6'5" Lloyd Fourtoux. Great broad strength from John Jamison, Charlie Joyce and Wally Amphlett. And the slick, speedy guards—Neil Graves, Steve McKibben and Danny Grant. The team is coached by Dick Rosintoski.

With talent like this they will probably have to change the nets at half-time from all the ripping shots going through!

Playing pro 12 minute quarters both teams should hit well above the century mark! This is one Basketball Game you can't possibly miss — and it costs only 50c per person! Benefit of the Andover Redwings Baseball Team.
