Spurling-Cook

On Saturday, November 7, 1970 at 4 p. m., Miss Jane Marie Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cook of Andover, N. Y., became the bride of Malvin James Spurling, son of Mr. Paul Spurling and the late Mrs. Spurling of Eaton, N. Y.

The Rev. C. Clayton Comstock performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with fall flowers at the Erwin United Methodist Church of Syracuse, N. Y.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, chose a white street length dress of sheer nylon over crepe, fashioned with a round neckline and long puff sleeves of sheer nylon. The empire waist was accented with a satin bow. Sheer tucked nylon over crepe formed the skirt. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a tiara of iridescence. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Miss Florence Cummins of Syracuse, N. Y., was her only attendant. She chose a dress of mauve crepe styled with an empire waist and short puff sleeves. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Acting as best man was Robert Ross, also of Syracuse.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a powder blue sheath with silver accessories and wore a corsage of yellow and white carnations.

A dinner reception was held for the immediate family at the Itallia-Rex Inn, Auburn, N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and Central City Business Int., and is employed as an accountant by Smith-Corona Marchant of Syracuse.

The bridegroom, who graduated from Eaton High School, served four years with the U.S. Navy and is employed by the Jamesville Dewitt School system.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 735 W. Onondaga St., Apt. 10, Syracuse.

In
"our town"

■ Seems the neighborhood pharmacist has become quite a literary character, popping up in books, short stories, movies—even as narrator in a classic American play. Perhaps it's because we're characteristic of neighborhood businessmen. Since you stop in often, our store is a friendly meeting place. Matter of fact, many of you are old friends with whom we talk "family" as often as "shop." We're proud of this part we play in community life.
