The Town Board accepted a Budget for 1971 of $50,215.72 at the Hearing after Election. No one came to the Hearing outside the Board. The Budget for 1970 was $38,920.72, making a raise of $11,295. Higher valuation will offset this so the raise in tax rate won't be too much. The increase is largely due to giving benefits to the Highway Workers and a raise to Assessors. It will also be necessary to hold a Special Election after the first of the year to vote whether to keep three Assessors or have one.

Town Clerk, Marjory York, reports she sold $1,100.00 in licenses in October. She has been kept busy selling deer licenses and was sold out of Resident Big Game Licenses Monday morning.
