Miss Betty Jane Burley became the bride of William Lynn Lewis at a double ring ceremony Saturday, November 21, 1970 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Rexville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Burley and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, all of Greenwood.

The Rev. Otto Vogt, pastor of St. Mary's Church and Elder Michael Hartwig of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, officiated before the altar decorated with bouquets of white mums. Mrs. Raymond Duke was soloist and Mrs. Clair Rollins was organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of white crepe, fashioned with an Empire waist, A-line skirt, scoop neck and big mutton sleeves. Her illusion bridal veil cascaded to the floor from a silver chiffon pillbox headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Michael Hartwig of Syracuse, was Matron-of-Honor for her sister. She was attired in an aqua crepe dress styled with an Empire bodice, V neckline, leg-of-mutton sleeves and A-line skirt. She wore a headpiece of silver ribbon and carried a bouquet of aqua daisies and yellow rosebuds.

Larry Lewis of Horseheads, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Roger York of Andover, R. D., and Jerry Burley, brother of the bride.

A reception for seventy-five was held in the RLDS Church parlors decorated with white candles, aqua and white streamers and bells. The bride's mother was assisted by Mrs. Nelson Brewster. Mrs. Carol Bassett, aunt of the bride, cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Arlene Krusen poured and Miss Valencia Greene was in charge of the gifts.

For going away the bride wore a beige knit suit with brown accessories. They are making their home at 645 McCall Road, Rochester, N. Y.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Greenwood Central School and attended BOCES for L.P.N. Her husband is a 1968 graduate of Greenwood Central School and 1970 graduate of Alfred State College. He is employed at Eastman Kodak Company at Rochester as a Chemical Technician.

Out-of-town guests attended from Canisteo, Hornell, Syracuse, Andover, Troupsburg, Horseheads, Rochester, Geneseo, Ithaca, Lavonia, Barker, Jasper and Rhode Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrus of Hornell, announce the engagement of their daughter, Veronica, to John P. McCaffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey of Greenwood.
