Notice To Harborers Or Owners Of Dogs

Dog Licenses are due January 1st, 1971. They may be obtained at the Town Clerk's Office.

The law requires that dogs be licensed by January 1. Failure to obtain a license subjects the owner to a penalty of $10.00 and costs and the dog is liable to seizure.

The Commissioner of Health has issued an order requiring all dogs six months of age or over in the county to be vaccinated to prevent rabies. Therefore, an applicant for a dog license must present to the clerk a certificate certified by a duly licensed veterinarian showing that the dog has been so vaccinated.

To be acceptable the certificate presented must show that a modified live virus vaccine was used within the four years immediately preceding the application date, or that killed vaccine of brain tissue origin was used within the year immediately preceding the application date.

If your application is mailed to the clerk, the vaccination certificate must accompany your application and check.

Christian Life Institute To Be Held In Wellsville

The Rev. Alan C. Minarcik, pastor of the Andover and Belmont Presbyterian Churches, is pleased to announce the Christian Life Institute of the Allegany County Fellowship of Christian Education. The Institute this year will feature Dr. J. C. Wynn, Professor of Pastoral Theology at the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

The theme of this year's Institute is: "The Christian and Contemporary Moral Problems". Dr. Wynn will speak on the topics: The Future of the Family, The Changing Role of the Sexes, The Youth Culture, and Contemporary Sexual Ethics. The Institute will be held in Wellsville on four consecutive Monday nights in January and February at 7:30 P. M. The dates will be: January 18th, 25th, and February 1st and 8th at 7:30 P. M. A nominal admission charge will be made for the series.

Dr. Wynn is a specialist in family education and has written six books on the topic and contributed several essays on the subject in books and journals over the decades. He has lectured extensively throughout the world. He has written such books as: "How Christian Families Face Problems" and "Pastoral Ministry to Families". His presentations during the Institute will include tapes, slides, recordings, group participation, etc.

The public is cordially invited to take part.

Father Dies

Word has been received of the recent death of Harold P. MacMichael, 72, of 81 Main Street, Almond. Mr. MacMichael had served for many years as supervisor on the Allegany County Board of Supervisors from the Town of Almond.

Born in the Town of Hornellsville, he was a former resident of Hornell, prior to moving to Almond 41 years ago. He was an architectural draftsman and had been employed by the former Hornell Woodworking Corporation and Wood Specialty Corporation in Rochester.

Mr. MacMichael had also served as president of the Alfred-Almond Central School Board at the time the school was built. He was a member of Alfred Post American Legion and the Hornellsville Lodge F. & A. M., and was an elder in the Almond Union of Churches.

Besides his widow, Ellen Stryker MacMichael, he is survived by a son, Philip of Andover; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Almond; and a brother, Nelson of Arkport.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Almond.
