

Notice Of Public Hearing

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held in the County Legislators' Room in the County Courthouse, Belmont, New York, on January 11, 1971, at 2:30 p. m. in connection with a local law providing for a partial tax exemption of real property owned by certain persons with limited income who are sixty-five years of age or over.

This local law provides in substance, that the County of Allegany will annually grant a partial exemption of county taxes to the extent of 50% of the assessed valuation of real property which is owned by a person or persons 65 years of age or over, provided an annual application is filed, annual income does not exceed $3,000., title to the property is vested in the owners at least 60 consecutive months prior to the date application is filed, and the property (a) is wholly or partly occupied by the owners, (b) is used exclusively for residential purposes, and (c) constitutes the legal residence of the owners.

This Local Law, if adopted, will become effective on the date it is filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

By Order of the Allegany County Board of Legislators on December 14, 1970.

Appreciation

We would like to express sincere thanks for all the lovely cards and gifts given us by our many members and friends of the Andover and Greenwood United Methodist Churches. Our special thanks to each one who had a part in the very generous cash gifts. It is deeply appreciated.

A Christmas tree in a warm room will absorb up to a quart of water a day.

Sometimes Christmas is written Xmas because "X" is the Greek equivalent of "ch" and stands for the word "Christ".

In New York State, Scotch pine, balsam fir, white spruce, and Douglas fir are the predominant Christmas trees.
