

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil H. Hussey of Greenwood, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl, to Mr. George W. Cobb of Richmond, Virginia, son of Dr. and Mrs. Whitfield Cobb of Blacksburg, Virginia.

Miss Hussey, currently residing in Richmond, is a graduate of Greenwood Central School in 1963, of Houghton College in 1967, and in 1969 received the Performer's Certificate and Master of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester. Since September 1969 she has been an instructor in Voice at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. Cobb, whose father is a professor in Virginia Polytechnic Institute, is a graduate of George School, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and Dartmouth College in Hanover, N. H., where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was the recipient of a fellowship from the Danforth Foundation. He is currently engaged in graduate studies in Statistics at the Medical College of Virginia and is a member of the adjunct faculty of Virginia Commonwealth University.

Miss Hussey's father is a former District Superintendent of Schools in Steuben County, and recently retired as Director of Teacher Education at Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester, N. Y.

The wedding is planned for April 3, 1971 in the Greenwood Methodist Church.

There was a good attendance at the United Methodist Church Christmas Eve for the Christmas Cantata under the direction of Harold Huffcut. The rendition was interrupted when Mr. Phelps of Andover started out and fell. The Greenwood Ambulance took him to the Bethesda Hospital. Word was received that he was discharged the same night.

Miss Cheryl Hussey was soloist at the United Methodist Church Sunday morning.

Nominations submitted by the Nominating Committee were accepted as read. Trustees for 1973 are Albert Lamphier and Lloyd Chaffee. Other changes: Mrs. Douglas Cornell was elected as Church Treasurer to replace Mrs. Marjorie Matthews who resigned. Mrs. Albert Lamphier replaces Mrs. Cornell as Financial Secretary.

Mrs. Nellie Horton who was taken to the St. James Mercy Hospital by ambulance last week, died Thursday morning. She was the widow of Raymond Horton who at one time sold Raleigh Products. She has lived in Greenwood over ten years. The funeral was held Monday afternoon with burial in Jasper.

Pvt. 1/C Edward Mullen, Jr., stationed at Fort Myers, is home on leave from Dec. 17 to Jan. 3. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Kernan of Stannards went to bring him home.

Pvt. Floyd Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Drake of Bush Hill, home from Fort Eustis, Va., for Christmas. He is in Helicopter Maintenance.

Pfc James Vanderhoef, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Vanderhoef, is home for a 30-day leave. He is being transferred from Germany to Viet Nam.

Mrs. Margaret Blades, Vocal Teacher, was director of the Christmas Operetta, "A Gift For Santa" presented by Kindergarten thru Sixth Grade at Greenwood Central School Monday night. The cast: Father Milford, Bill DeTine; Mother Milford, Annette Pritchard; Ann Sandi Hunt; Fred, Harry Bise; Janice, Darlene Halsey and Santa, Mike Murphy. The Grades sang the choruses and Christmas Toys.

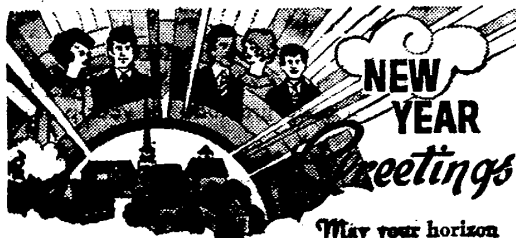

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee entertained for dinner Saturday Mrs. John Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Chaffee of Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ewell, Cindy and Richard of Owego and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Palmer and sons of Marlon, N. C. The Palmer family were spending the week in Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Redmond of

day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond. Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Redmond entertained her mother, Mrs. Jack Stewart of Beuna Vista and her brothers and their families.
