Junior Girl Scout Troop 254 hostesses to Brownie Troops 219 and 233 on Wednesday afternoon, February 21, at the A.C.S. Cafeteria.

The girls had a Flag Ceremony and gave the new Girl Scout Promise and the Brownies followed with their Promise. After the opening, the Juniors put on a Puppet Show. The girls made up their skills and made puppets. The puppets were made out of scrap material, yarn, buttons, styrofoam balls, and paper roller tubes. The puppets and the skits were made for requirements on their Dabbler Badge.

This meeting with the Brownies was to give the Brownies that will be flying up into Juniors at the end of the year, a chance to see some of the things they will be doing in Junior Scouting next year. There will be many Brownies flying up into Junior Girl Scouts next year.

Because Troop 254 is a new Troop, they need a new Crest which the girls chose themselves. This Crest is the shape of a badge but has a Bluebird on it. Every girl in Troop 254 receives one of these Crest to wear on her sash. The meeting closed with games Cookies and hot chocolate were served.

We wish to thank the people of our Community at this time for helping us make our Cookie Sales quota. We had to sell 35 boxes per girl, which we did. Thank you.
