On the evening of February 28, a Scout Banquet was held for the members, parents and friends of Cub Pack 13, Scout Troop 62 and Explorer Post 62 at the cafeteria of the Greenwood Central School. About 90 people were present.

All members of Pack 13 participated in the opening ceremony. Clinton York, Institutional Representative, of the Troop and Post, acted as Master of Ceremonies and gave the Invocation.

Following the dinner, Cubmaster Darrell Brown, presented all the Cubs with the new style Bobcat Badge. He also presented each member with a special neckerchief of Pack 13.

It was announced by Mary Mullen, Institutional Representative for the Pack, that two Dens were being formed with Joey Ahearn, Billy Murphy, Rob Hovey, Todd Brown, James Lounsberry and Dean Higgins in Den 1 with Joan Brown as Den Mother.

Lyle Wilson, Ronnie Edwards, Mike Moore, Lincoln Bise, Julius Cerrillo and Tom Harris will be in Den 2 with Arlene Hovey as Den Mother.

The Webelos Den will be meeting at the School building with Reg Baker as leader. Present members are Guy Bise and David Baker. More are expected in the near future.

Ed Mullen, Scoutmaster presented the Scout Badge to five new members: Sharron Lewis, Leonard Campanella, Richard Mullen, Richard Wallace and Mike Putnam. Under the new requirements this badge is worn while the Scouts are working for Tenderfoot Rank which takes a minimum of two months.

Tenderfoot badges were awarded to Mike Murphy, Jeff Ahearn, and Jim Putnam. Recruiters badges, for bringing in new members, were presented to Jim Putnam, Mike Holt, Jim Hink, Rich Wallace, Mike Updyke and Patrol Leader Allyn Krusen. Home Repairs Merit badges were awarded to Harry Bise, Jim Putnam, Jim Hink and Bise.

Harry Bise was presented with the Second Class award which had been earned under the old requirements.

Mike Holt was presented with the First Class badge. It was announced that this was the last thing required for him to receive the God and Country Award for which he has been working for about one and one-half years.

David Ordway, Patrol Leader of the Vulture Patrol, was presented with a neckerchief which he had designed. Other patrol members received similar neckerchiefs.

It was also mentioned that an other neckerchief had been printed, honoring the Troop for 37 years of continuous operation. Each member of the Troop received one of these.

The Scouter of Honor Award, which is presented by the leaders to some person who has been of great help in the operation of the Troop in the past, was presented to Clinton York. Besides being Institutional Representative, he has acted as Assistant Scoutmaster, Merit Badge Counselor and in many other ways. It was noted that Mr. York was a member of the first Troop, 37 years ago. He was also presented with the new neckerchief.

Service Stars, for years of service were presented and, it was mentioned that Nate Austin and Bub Halsey with four years service, Tim Heckman with three and Derek Cerrillo with two years had transferred to Explorer Post 62, also that Jim Murphy had been an Explorer for three years.

Following the awards, a Pine-wood Derby was conducted by Unit Commissioner Bob Schultz. Winners for the Cubs were Todd Brown 1st, James Lounsberry 2nd and Dean Higgins 3rd. These boys will go on to participate in a District run-off in Dansville in April.

Winners for the Scouts were Steve Updyke 1st, Rich Wallace 2nd and Jeff Ahearn 3rd.

A race between the winners ended with Updyke 1st and Cubs Lounsberry and Higgins 2nd and 3rd. Raymond Edwards acted as registrar and weigher, Jim Ahearn operated the starting gate and Clinton York was the judge.

The leaders would like to express their appreciation to the Andover Market Basket for their donation of food.

Members of Troop 62 participated in the District Snow Sculpture Contest. The constructed a beautiful figure of a Thunderbird, the symbol of the District.

Other members of the Troop prepared a window display in Chaffee's Hardware as part of the Anniversary Month celebration of Scouting.

The sad part is that neither effort was judged by District Officers so that the boys could receive proper credit.
