Girl Scout Week 'Finding The Way'

March 11th - 17th is Girl Scout Week. This is set aside for the girls to show their community what they have done, and an opportunity to stop and think about their promise and laws to see if they are really trying to do their best to be friendmakers. Be discoverers. Be ready helpers. Be prepared. Be honest, fair, cheerful and most of all be a sister to every other Girl Scout.

We are pleased to announce that there are 5 troops consisting of 115 girls in Andover this year. Next year we hope to have a Senior Scout Troop.

To start our week, the Lions Club had a wonderful breakfast for us on March 11th followed by the girls going to their church for services.

To help make Girl Scout week successful, Monday, March 12th was designated as uniform day which each girl will wear with the proud feeling that she belongs to the Girl Scout movement.

Then with the help of their wonderful and much appreciated leaders, they had window displays. Mrs. Beverly Carson's Troop No. 219 and Mrs. Carole Davis' Troop No. 219 displays are in Thorp's Toy Store — Mrs. Jeanette Horan's Troop No. 197 in Wittle's Store — Mrs. Betty Ordiway's Troop No. 254 in Ordiway's Plumbing Store — and Mrs. Kaye Shaw's Troop No. 218 in William's Store.

As you look at these window displays you can see the girls are "Finding the Way" — "The right way" thru their Scout promise.

On my honor, I will try: To serve God, My country and mankind, and to live by the Girl Scout laws.
