Jim Mulholland, parade chairman for the festival, said that first prize awards of $20 each will be given to the best parade entries among organized marching units, antique cars, floats and horses. Second place prize in each division is $15, and third place prize is $10.

Awards to school bands participating in the parade will be $75 for first place, $50 for second place, $25 for third. Three special awards trophies will also be presented.

Judges for the parade marching and music units will be

Joseph Canale, director of instrumental music at the State University Agricultural and Technical College, Alfred, and Richard Dudinak, director of music at Alfred University.

Judges for floats, antique cars, and horses will be Ken

Roberts, president of the Allegany County Highlands, Inc.,

Kan Fry, executive director of the Hornell Chamber of Commerce and Village Justice Richard Schrader.

Judges for the Maple Queen contest will be Rodney

Sheffield, cooperative extension agent in Allegany County,

Miss Helen Winzer, society editor of the Sunday Spectator,

Mrs. Roberta Mumma, social calendar reporter for WLSV

radio, Hornell Mayor Andrew Mazzella, and Wellsville Mayor
