

Judith Mosher and Wayne Grant United in Marriage April 6th

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Grant

Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the First United Methodist Church of Wellsville for the marriage of Miss Judith L. Mosher and Mr. Wayne W. Grant, Friday, April 6, 1973.

The 7 p. m. ceremony united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland C. Mosher of Wellsville and the son of Mrs. Mareta Perry Routh of Randleman, N. C., and Mr. Winfield Grant of Cuba, N. Y. The traditional doubling ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald Weaver. Mrs. Gilbert Parker of Wellsville, was the organist.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride selected a floor length gown of French organza and Venetian lace. The gown featured a high neckline outlined in Venice lace and an Empire bodice with accents of Venice lace and full organza sleeves with matching lace. The overskirt was adorned with lace flowers. Adding to the elegance of the gown was the attached chapel length train adorned with touches of lace. An heirloom lace Spanish mantilla completed the bride's ensemble and has been handed down through generations of the bride's family. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow rosebuds with lilly of the valley and ivy.

The Maid-of-Honor was Miss Jane Cavanaugh of Wellsville. The bridesmaids were Miss Dawn Mosher of Wellsville, sister of the bride, Miss Joan Kenerson of Olean, Mrs. Cathy Manion of Andover and Miss Patty Ann Routh, sister of the groom from Randleman, N. C. Flower girl was Miss Susie Doll of Hornell.

The Maid-of-Honor was attired in a floor length gown of chiffon over taffeta. The white bodice accented with ruffles and long chiffon sleeves was attached to a skirt of maize chiffon. She wore a picture hat with matching ribbon for her headpiece and carried a hurricane lamp with lighted candle surrounded by yellow and white orchid mums.

The bridesmaids were gowned identically as the Maid-of-Honor, only in orchid. Each carried the same flower arrangement as the honor attendant. The flower girl and junior bridesmaid carried a small nosegay of spring flowers.

Best man for his brother was Danny Grant of Randleman, N. C., formerly of Andover. Other gentlemen attendants were Mr. Alan Mosher of Wellsville, brother of the bride, Mr. Thomas Manion of Andover, Mr. Kevin Perry, cousin of the groom, of Silver Creek, N. Y., and Mr. Dennis Burrows of Andover, cousin of the groom. The ringbearer was Harvey Potter of Wellsville.

A reception for 350 guests was held at the Heater in Wellsville following the ceremony. After the reception the couple left on a honeymoon to an undisclosed location.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Hornell Senior High and a 1969 graduate of Alfred State College. She is presently employed as a Registered nurse at the Jones Memorial Hospital. The groom is a graduate of Andover Central School and will be attending Alfred State College in the Fall. He is employed by the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville.

A rehearsal party was held at 10 p. m., April 5, at the Andover Grange Hall and was given by Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan Phillipson and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Burrows aunts and uncles of the groom.

Prenuptial events were given by Mrs. Cathv Manion, Miss Dawn Mosher, Mrs. Norma Burrows and Mrs. Katy Phillipson, Miss Jane Cavanaugh and the Andover Girl Scout Cadette Troup No. 218.
