

The Andover American Legion Color Guard of Lynch-Burger Post No. 397 lead the 1973 Maple Festival Parade
Photo by Wittie

Mayor James Bliss and Supervisor Howard Burdick lead the "Maple Festival" Parade riding in the 1909 Model-T "Convertible" owned by Carrol Burdick and driven by his nephew "Hal" Sisson. Photo by Wittie

Several of the Antique Gas Engines that were on display in the ACS parking lot during the 2 day Maple Festival. After the picture was taken they were "off-loaded", set up, and were soon "fired-up" and running.
Photo by Wittie

State Assemblyman James L. Emery of Geneseo crowns Yvonne Mattison "Queen" of the Maple Festival during the intermission of the Round the Square Dance held Saturday evening in the ACS Auditorium. Lion President "Red" Allen "extends a helping hand" prior to awarding the 1st prize check of $50 to the new "Queen". Photo by Wittie

One of the "Colorful Sets" of the "Round & Squares" are caught in action during their demonstration of "Western Style" Square Dancing in the ACS Gym Saturday evening. Photo by Wittie

The first 3 prize winners of the Maple Festival "Queen Contest" pose happily with their prize money they were just awarded from the Andover Lions Club in the closing act of the Contest.
Left to right 1st runner up, Deborah McCarthy, Fillmore, "Queen" Yvonne Mattison holding her long-stemmed Red Roses; and 2nd runner up, Vickie Bledsoe of Whitesville. Photo by Wittie