He was born Feb. 20, 1900.

Mr. Holt was a former resident of Andover and was Town Police man for several years. He was also superintendent of the Andover School buses and an inspector of school buses.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Dora Holt; three sons, Charles Holt Jr. of W. Virginia, James Holt of Jamestown and William Holt of W. Virginia. Also several grandchildren and one great grand child.

Funeral services were held in Jamestown, Tuesday at 11 a. m., with burial in Jamestown.

"Memoirs" In Rehearsal

The Andover Chamber of Commerce members are diligently preparing "Memoirs", their 28th Annual Minstrel Show, for public viewing on May 24 and 25 at Andover Central School.

Curtain time at 8 P. M., will find the usual end-men singing old favorites and some new ones as they are joined by several new voices from the community in addition to the regulars.

The interlocutor, Jerry McCartney, will be introducing "Bob" Baker singing "Playmates"; "Don" Baker, "Old Man River"; "Ev" Childs, "Old Pal"; "Mike Gath" a medley of old songs he has sung before; "Jim" Mulholland, "Sleepy Time Gal" and "Frank Russell, "By The Light of the Silvery Moon."

Music will dominate the show this year as each end-man renders two numbers. The Circle is large and well-practiced and the end-men are nervous as the big date approaches.

Plan to spend an evening of musical pleasure in a worthy cause, the proceeds of which, sponsor the many programs carried out each year by the Chamber of Commerce.

Part of the "line-up" of 22 High School Buses in the Allegheny County "Shrine Caravan" that took approximately 1,000 Fifth and Sixth Graders to the Shrine Circus in Buffalo on April 30th and then visited the Buffalo Zoo afterwards. News Photo

Some of the ACS Students as well as one of the bus drivers and several of the adult Supervisors are "stacked up" to the ceiling in the Buffalo War Memorial Auditorium at the Shrine Circus. Despite the "lofty perch", there were very few empty seats in the group as almost all of the audience stayed "glued to their seats" during the entire performance. News Photo

Jim Mulholland, Leslie McMorris and a new member of the Shrine from Shinglehouse, Pa., with other Shriners in the background, are taking a "head count" to see if any children were still missing in the Zoo area before "winding up" and "heading them out". — And there were about 14 still in the Zoo that had to be rooted out.
