Mission Impossible — A New Twist!

Harry Campbell, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Allen, and grandson of Mrs. C. C. Backus, with his partner Alan Carlin, came up with a winner when it seemed that they were confronted with a "Mission Impossible".

In the previous two years that they have been entered in the Innertube Regatta, they placed 5th two years ago and 2nd last year. However they had won the Admirals Award both years.

This year, by lot, they drew a position in the 7th row from the front which gave them practically a "Mission Impossible" to get through all of the contestants ahead of them in order to gain the lead.

Needless to say they went undaunted about their task, and in the closing part of the race it was a "nip-and-tuck" battle to the wire with the winners of last year's race — but they achieved their goal — and took 1st place in addition to winning the Admirals Award again.

Boy Scout Troop Trip To Canada

The Andover Boy Scout Troop No. 42 visited Canada for the 11th International Camporee, May 11, 12, and 13th at Ontario, Canada.

The first afternoon and evening, the Scouts pitched their tents and set up camp and had a "Mugs-up" (hot chocolate and cookies) and retired for the evening.

Saturday morning, rations were picked up at 6 a. m. and they had breakfast, followed by a "Flag Break" (Flag Raising Ceremony to the music of the Canadian Bag Pipe Color Guard).

The Troop then all worked together to build a raft, as project, constructed with 55 gallon drums and poles lashed together, winning first place with their craft and received a wooden plaque.

The rest of Saturday was spent in joining the various activities and Scouting events with the other thousand Boy Scouts attending the Camporee.

Sunday morning, rations were drawn again at 6 a. m., followed by breakfast and Flag Raising Ceremony. "Scouts own" (Church Services) were then conducted, followed by the Awards Ceremony with the local Troop being presented their plaque for 1st Prize.

Following the awards, camp was broken, cars loaded, and the Scouts headed home stopping for lunch before leaving Canada and arrived home around 6 p. m. tired — but Happy.

Appreciation

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for all the cards, visitations and also for the kindnesses extended to my husband while I was in the hospital.
