Next game is with Friendship Thursday, June 7 at Andover.

Yanks Nip Braves 6 - 5

In the first extra inning game of the year, the Yanks outlasted the Braves 6 - 5.

A walk to Aaron Russell, a throwing error and a wild pitch gave the Yanks the winning run in the 7th inning.

Pat Atwell tied the game for the Yanks in the 5th inning with his first Home Run of the year.

The Braves stared with Randy Bridge. He went 6 innings and gave up 5 runs, walked 3 and struck-out 7. Rex Voscurg came on in the sixth and was the victim of 3 errors to get tagged with the loss.

Dave Nevol went the first 5 innings for the Yanks. He surrendered 5 runs, 3 hits 1 walk and struck out 4. Pat Atwell come on for the last 2 innings to get the win. He allowed 0 runs, 1 hit, 0 walks and registered 5 strike-outs.

The Brave offense was led by Rex Vosburg with 2 singles and 1 run scored, Arnie Spencer 1 single and 2 runs, Rob Murray a double and 1 run and Randy Bridge a double and run scored.

Pat Atwell with a single, home run, and 2 runs scored led the Yanks attack. Aaron Russell a single and 2 runs scored, Kevin Ordiway a single and run scored, Daren Monahan a single and run scored rounded out the attack.

Mets Trim Yanks 3 - 0

The Mets avenged a earlier defeat by handing the Yanks their second loss in a row 3 - 0.

Marty Geer pitched a superb game to get credit for the shut-out. Marty allowed 2 singles to Aaron Russell and 1 to Tim Slade. He allowed only 1 walk while regiserling 15 strike-outs.

Pat Atwell went all the way for the Yanks allowing 3 unearned runs while giving up a double to Eric MacMichael and singles to Joe Howland and Jay Jackson. Pat walked 3 and struck-out 7.

Met runs were scored by Eric MacMichael, with 2 and Jay Jackson with 1.

Due to frequent rain-outs there will be games on Monday through Friday for the next few weeks.
