Johnston and Sisson Exchange Wedding Vows in Rustic Setting

A covered footbridge and a large old maple tree provided a picturesque setting for the June 23, 1973 wedding of Christy Lynn Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Johnston of Sidney, N. Y., and Harold F. Sisson, Jr., son of Mrs. Jane Sisson of Andover and Harold Sisson of Machias.

The double ring ceremony was performed at one o'clock p. m. by Pastor Edward Sutton, at the ancestral residence of the groom's late grandfather and grandmother, Mrs. Clifford T. Burdick, Route 21, Andover, New York.

The groom's cousin, Miss Yvonne Mattison, flautist, played selections of Bach, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, and included the song "Sunrise, Sunset" from "Fiddler on the Roof", selected by the bride and groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown fashioned of white crepe in an A-line style with long chiffon sleeves. She trimmed her gown with chains of bridesmaids. Their attire was identical veil was finished with matching crocheted lace and seed pearls. She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the groom's mother, and a silver charm bracelet, a gift from the groom. She carried a colonial bouquet of white sweetheart roses and white daisies.

Miss Laura Isiker of Sidney, N. Y., was Maid-of-Honor. She wore an Empire styled gown of flowered dotted swiss and a white garden hat. She carried a single white rose.

Mrs. Phillip Darling of Bainbridge sister of the bride, and Mrs. Monty Peters of Annandale

Va., sister of the groom, were crocheted lace roses. Her finger-tical to that of the Maid-of-Honor.

Miss Michelle Gugino of Rochester, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a gown identical to that of the Maid-of-Honor, and carried a basket of blue and white daisies. John Gugino of Rochester, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer. He wore white knickers and a white vest, with a lavender shirt and matching knee socks. He carried a lavender pillow trimmed with white lace.

Donald C. Sisson of Andover was his brother's Best Man Robert Zittel of Hamburg, and Tom Dixon of Andover, served as ushers. The couple traveled from the wedding to the reception in a 1969 Model T Ford, driven by the groom. They greeted 80 guests at the Andover Grange Hall.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Sidney High School, and attended Alfred State College.

The groom graduated from Andover Central School in 1969, he graduated from Mohawk Valley Community College in Utica with an A.A.S. degree in 1971. He received his B.F.A. degree from Alfred University, School of Art in June of 1973.

Out-of-town guests came from Annandale, Va., Bainbridge, Sidney, Franklin, Fultonville, John-sonburg, Hamburg, Wyoming, Wil-liamson, Rochester, Machias, Al-fred, Almond, Belmont, and Wells-ville, N. Y.

After a short wedding trip through Central New York, the couple will be at home at 25 Cen-ter Street, Andover, New York.

Yanks Shutout Mets 15 - 0

The Yanks turned back the Mets Tuesday night 15 - 0 behind Pat Atwell's 3 hit shutout.

Pat and Marty Geer hooked up in their 5th encounter of the year. Marty worked the entire 6 In-nings but got very poor support from his teammates. There is a strong possibility of a play-off be-tween these two clubs.

Pat went all the way allowing 0 runs 3 hits, 1 walk and chalked up 10 strike-outs. Marty allowed 15 runs, 14 hits, 11 walks and 12 strike outs.

The Yank offense was as fol-lows: Tim Slade 1 single and 2 runs, Aaron Russell 1 double and 1 single, and 3 runs, Pat Atwell 4 singles and 3 runs, Dave Nevol 1 double and 2 singles, Kevin Ordli-way 1 single and 1 run, Tim Horan 4 walks, John Hardy 2 runs and Daren Monahan 3 singles and 3 runs.

The Met hits were singles. These were credited to Joe Howland in the first Inning, Eric MacMichael and Jay Jackson in the sixth.

Everyone connected with Little League is anxiously awaiting the announcement of the Little League All-Stars. We are all in hopes of a strong Andover Squad to rep-resent us in our Local Tourna-ment. Our Tournament starts Saturday, July 21. The All-Stars will be announced following the completion of our schedule.

Andover Edges Bolivar 1 - 0

Andover's Babe Ruth Baseball team goes to 4 - 1 in league play with a squeaker over Bolivar.

Rob Hyland was the winning pitcher. He allowed just 2 hits, struck out 7 and walked 5. Hy-land tired in the 7th Inning and Calvin Shaw came on and retired the next 3 batters, two on strikes.

Andover scored their lone run in the 5h Inning after two were out as Rob Hyland doubled, and Louie Spencer singled to bring him in.

Bolivar's Randy Johnson also pitched a fine game. He allowed 2 hits, struck out 10 and walked 8. Both teams had just one error. Next game is Thursday 28th at Andover.

Canandaigua in a doubleheader with starting time at 1:30.

On Wednesday, the Fourth of July, Cayuga is here and on Sun-day the eighth, Waterfalls is here for 2.

Hope to see all our fans at these games!

Redwing News

Last Sunday, the Redwings lost a tough game to Cohocton, 6 to 2. Young Redwing hurler, Paul Geise had his no hitter spoiled in the eighth by Denny Leyden and then 2 more bloop singles scored 4 runs. Geise struck out 9 and gave up just 3 singles. The Red-wings had 6 hits, but left 11 run-ners stranded.

This Sunday, the start of a long home stand, the Redwings play
