Green-Roeske

A candlelight service in the Christian Temple Church in Wellsville, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Deborah K. Roeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roeske, R.D.2, Andover and James E. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Green of 31 Hanover St., Wellsville, Saturday evening, June 9, 1973, at 7:30 o'clock.

Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and white gladioli were the decorations. The Rev. James Paul Clark, pastor, performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by the bride's parents, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin styled with an Empire waist, long sheer sleeves and high Victorian neckline. Her shoulder length silk illusion veil fell from a headpiece trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible with a red long stemmed rose and streamers.

Mrs. Richard Watkins of Belmont, sister of the groom, was the Matron-of-Honor. Her floor length gown of yellow satin was styled with an Empire waist, elbow length sleeves. She carried a yellow long stemmed rose and streamers.

Robert Shelly of Wellsville, was best man.

A wedding party for the immediate families and friends followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

On July 7, a reception and buffet dinner was served in honor of the couple at the Andover Grange Hall for approximately 100 guests.

The bride is a graduate of the Andover Central School, Class of 1970, and attended BOCES. The groom is a graduate of Wellsville High School and also attended BOCES. He served two years in the United States Armed Forces.

The couple reside at the Weimers Trailer Court in "Lanards."
