

Andover Summer Playground News

A second full-filled week occurred at the Andover Summer Playground with a variety of activities being participated in by the large number of children who attended daily.

On Monday, the children designed and created their own versions of unusual hats using various papers and materials for their creations. The hats were judged after lunch by the counselors who awarded prizes to the following:

- Aaron Russell — most original — 1st place
- Valerie Monahan — most original — 2nd place
- Gary Hoagland — most unusual
- Tammy Padden — prettiest
- Suzie Atwell — biggest
- Jennifer Lehman — smallest
- Penny Glover — most colorful
- Donnie Horan — handsomest
- Kim Spoor — funniest — 1st place
- Steve Dodge — funniest — 2nd place
- Doug Dodge — funniest — 3rd place
- Showing most artist talent — 1st place went to Julie Manske and 2nd place to Pam Glover
- The prize for the cutest was awarded to Stephanie Lehman
- In the "bridal division", the 1st place was awarded to Margaret Middaugh and 2nd place to Sharon Daws while Helena Davis received the prize for the "Flapper Division".

On Tuesday the children tested various types of paints including enamels, flat water paints, acrylics, and oil paints while participating in a rock painting contest. Prizes for this contest were awarded to:

- Kathy Scribner
- Suzie Atwell
- Darcy Burrows
- Donnie Lehman
- Jennifer Lehman
- Stephanie Lehman
- John Mickle
- Beth Stewart
- Tim Lehman
- Kim Spoor
- Jim Mulholland
- Shirley Krause
- Billy Glover
- Daren Monahan
- Aaron Russell
- Doris Merriam
- Cheryl Merriam
- Guy Glover
- Doreen Burrows
- Guy Milligan
- Denise Burrows
- Gary Hoagland
- John Joyce
- Bob Buchsenschutz
- Dan Buchsenschutz
- Jim Buchsenschutz
- Mike Buchsenschutz

Later in the afternoon the Juniors and Seniors began to set up tents for their "Tent-City" all night campout. Forty-three youngsters braved the chilled dampness of the night air as they spent the night on the playground. The early part of the evening was spent in games and hunts and eating around the campfire.

On Wednesday, the children spent the morning learning to make trivets using the simple materials of plastic covers, plaster of paris and bottle caps. After lunch, the children again displayed their artistic abilities as they painted and decorated their trivets. Prizes for the trivets were awarded to:

- Julie Manske
- Debbie Riffle
- Sarah Boyle
- Suzie Atwell
- Ann Carlin
- Coyn Carl
- Pam Glover
- Kimberly Behn
- Billy Glover
- Jennifer Lehman
- Darcy Burrows
- Kathy Scribner
- Tim Fanton
- Margaret Middaugh
- Carol Manion
- John Joyce
- Nicky Brown
- Penny Glover
- Bart Carlin
- Jim Manion
- Denise Burrows
- Todd Fanton
- Gary Hoagland
- Don Harris
- Bob Manion

Thursday and Friday found the children actively pounding nails into boards, missing now and then, to bruise thumb but creating for themselves a weaving board. Using yarns, threads, and colored strings, they soon learned to weave the boards and to tie the threads and fringe the edges as they made their own doilies.

The Juniors and Seniors held a Basketball tournament on Wednesday and again on Friday as they showed their skills.

Swim Classes are daily as are free swim periods each afternoon.

- Other prizes during the week were awarded to:
- Carl Schrader
 - Karen Joyce
 - Mike Lehman
 - Tommy Middaugh
 - Darcy Burrows
 - Aaron Russell
 - Paul Joyce
 - Marty Geer
 - Steve Gaskins
 - Wayne Gaskins
 - Tammy Padden
 - Pam Dannheim
 - Tom Davis
 - Tim Lehman
 - Kevin Perry
 - Ty Perry
 - Tim Perry
 - Michele Cornnell
 - Terry Briggs
 - Lisa Howland
 - Mike Lehman
 - Linda Howland
 - Eric MacMichael
 - Jeff Dibble
 - Gary Barden

The 3rd week appears to be even more exciting as the children will start off Monday with rides on the Andover Fire Engine and in the local police car Monday afternoon will create a sound to be heard about the town as the children have their own "Rock Festival" and "Country Jamboree". Roy Allen and Larry Tidd will conduct the festivities with their electric guitars.

Tuesday, July 17th will present a "surprise craft" to be enjoyed by all.

The Golf Tournament will be held on Wednesday.

Thursday will find the children learning how to care for and groom as well as saddle and ride a horse. They will be shown the proper method of mounting by Mrs. Coy Fanton and her twin boys Tim and Todd Fanton.

Thursday afternoon, the Junior and Seniors will leave at one P. M. to spend the afternoon at the Angelica Fair.

The week will be completed on Friday with Races for the Primary groups and the competition of the Golf Tournament for the Juniors and Seniors.

Greenwood News Cont.

GRADE 8

- Joel Good
- Narda Mitchell

GRADE 9

- James Siebert
- Kris Dytche
- Joel Harris
- Romona Ellis
- Florence Mullen
- Duane Losey

GRADE 10

- Joan Bennett
- Jamie Blamire
- Brian Gulliver
- Greg Hunt
- Teri Rollins
- Lori Siebert

GRADE 11

- Brian Bentley
- Eugenia Cerrillo
- Brad Clark
- Thomas Hanbach
- Jeffrey Hunt
- Vickie Losey
- Patty Mills
- Cindy Wallace

GRADE 12

- Wanda Bise
- Valerie Edwards
- Michael McCormick
- Cindy York

Commercial Printing
at the
News Printing House

YANKS 10 - 5 — Front Row left to right — Tim Stage, Bl. Deming, Tim Horan, Kevin Ordway, John Hardy, Greg Hardy, Standing left to right — Daren Monahan, Dave Nevel, Doug Weitzel; Managers, John Fanton, Pat Atwell and Aaron Russell. Photo by Dale Green

BRAVES 6 - 8 — Front Row right — Kenny Bean, Guy Cole, Tim Rose, Mike Spoor, Billy Wallace, Standing left to right — Dave Wallace, Arnie Spencer, Rex Vosburg, Ron Glover, Manager, Coy Fanton. Photo by Dale Green

CARDS 2 - 12 — Front Row left to right — Paul Joyce, Rob Davis, Tony Dougherty, Guy Milligan, Denny Clemens, Standing left to right — Monte Milligan, John Gavin, Guy Baker, Marc Rowley, George Milligan, Manager, Ken Milligan; Manager Cliff Bale missing. Photo by Dale Green