

Preston and Baker Recite Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jay Baker

The Andover Blessed Sacrament Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Cindy Lou Preston and Robert Jay Baker, Saturday, July 28, 1973.

Baskets of colored carnations in yellow, melon and pale green and daisies were the decorations with a white aisle carpet. The wedding vows, with the double-ring ceremony was solemnized by Father Joseph Fiore. The organist was Paul Kilbane, Pleasant Ave., Andover.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Merton Preston of Andover, RD. 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Baker of 7 Harmon St., Andover.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Carol Dutcher, the bridesmaids were, the Misses Julie Baker and Amy Baker, sisters of the bridegroom and Miss Chris Witter. Miss Lauri Preston, cousin of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. The flower girl was Terri Preston, cousin of the bride and the ring bearer was Walter Hurlburt.

William Greene, Pleasant Ave., Andover, acted as best man and the other gentlemen attendants were David Thorp, David Alvord, Douglas Preston and Tracy Preston, brothers of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a formal gown, princess style of white silk organza over taffeta, high neckline and full long sleeves, all accented with ruffle. The bodice, sleeves and lower skirt were trimmed in dimensional imported Swiss art silk appliques.

Her chapel length veil of nylon tulle was decorated with small silk embossed flowers. She carried a bouquet of yellow, melon and green carnations, lily of the valley and stephanites.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaids wore formal gowns of flocked polyester voile over taffeta in yellow and melon styled with high necks, Empire waist and ruffle around the bottom. The neckline, waist and ruffle were accented with dainty white trim. Each carried bouquets of carnations in color to match her respective gown with daisies and lily-of-the-valley and wore in their hair, carnations in respective colors and daisies.

The junior bridesmaid was attired in green with a green bouquet.

The flower girl was dressed in a short white dress of the same material as the bridesmaids, only trimmed in white and yellow ribbon around the waist and in her hair she wore a single daisy and carried a basket of carnations in yellow, melon and green and white daisies.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Alfred Tech Lake Lodge for 200 guests. The lodge was trimmed in yellow and white bells and a large wedding cake in the color of green to match the dress of the junior bridesmaid, and served with punch in melon and green colors.

After a wedding trip to Canada the couple will reside at R.D. 1 Alfred Station.

The bride graduated from Andover Central School in 1970, attended William Smith College and plans to attend Alfred University in the Fall.

The bridegroom graduated from Andover Central School in 1961, graduated from Alfred Technical Institute with a major in Construction and is attending a course in Drafting.
