Andover Newlyweds to Reside in Hawaii

Sgt. and Mrs. Rodney Dean Brown

Miss Susan Dawn Boyer, daughter of Mrs. Lois Boyer, Andover, and Robert Boyer, Belmont, became the bride of Sgt. Rodney Dean Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Andover, at 7 p. m., June 30, in the Christian Temple, Wellsville. The church was decorated with twin hurricane candelabras with yellow and white daisies and baby's breath. The center aisle had satin bows and hurricane lamps.

The Rev. Paul Clark performed the double ring ceremony. Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Evangeline Young of Wellsville. The "Wedding Song" accompanied by guitar was sung by Maureen Harding and Mary Kay Presutti, both of Belmont.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor-length white satin gown with ruffled collar and cuffs and a smocked bodice. She wore a white picture hat with tulle veiling and yellow daisies. Her jewelry was a borrowed cultured pearl necklace of her paternal grandmother and a bracelet given to her by her brother and sister-in-law. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies with yellow ribbon.

Miss Joan Presutti of St. Cloud, Minn., was the maid-of-honor. Miss Becky Parker of Hornell was the bridesmaid. They wore identical floor-length yellow-dotted swiss gowns with a ruffled scoop neckline and accented with a satin ribbon at the waistline. They wore headbands of yellow and white daisies. They carried hurricane lamps surrounded by yellow and white daisies, baby's breath, and matching ribbon.

The flower girl was Holly Joy Hager of Durham, N. C., cousin of the bride. She wore a green-dotted swiss gown and a daisy headband similar to the bridesmaid's. She carried a basket filled with miniature flowers of yellow and white.

Dana Williams of Andover, was the best man. Ushers were Robert Brown of Andover, brother of the groom, and Douglas Hager of Durham, N. C., cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue floor-length gown and carried a nosegay of miniature blue mums, white roses, and baby's breath. The groom's mother wore a pink floor-length gown and carried a nosegay of white carnations, pink roses, and baby's breath.

A reception was held in the church parlors for about 150 guests. Mrs. Phyllis Burdick of Andover, was the hostess; with Kathy Spencer, Gena Fantauzzo and Sandra Hager assisting. Miss Eileen Atwell was in charge of the guest book.

The bride and attendants were honored at a dinner at Hilltop Restaurant. A personal shower was given by Marty Boyer and variety showers were given by Donna Cook and Joan Presutti.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Andover Central School. He also attended Alfred State College before enlisting in the U.S. Army. He is presently stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. Sgt. and Mrs. Brown will be at home in Hawaii after July 15.

Guests attended the wedding from Toccoa, Ga.; Durham, N. C.; Madison, Ind.; Rushford, Canisteo, Alfred, Hornell, Dansville, Andover, Arkport, Wellsville and St. Cloud, Minn.

Appreciation

We would like to express our appreciation and thanks to our relatives and friends for the lovely surprise party held in honor of our 25th wedding anniversary.
