Notice Of Adoption Of Village Ordinance On Dogs

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Andover, held in the Village Office, Andover, New York on Wednesday evening, September 26th, 1973, after a public hearing held as required by Law, of which due notice was published in the Andover News, the following ordinance was adopted on Control of Dogs within the Village of Andover, Allegany County, N. Y.

It is ordained and adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Village of Andover as follows:

The following is a copy of the proposed Dog Control Ordinance of the Village of Andover:

ARTICLE I

DOGS

Prohibited at large unless leashed

(a) No person owning or having custody and control of a dog shall permit such dog to be at large in the village, elsewhere than on the premises of the owner, except it be on the premises of another person with the knowledge and consent of such other person.

(b) The owner or person having the custody and control of a dog in the village, which is not on the premises of the owner or upon the premises of another person with the knowledge and consent of such person, shall control and restrain such dog by a leash.

(c) The fact that a dog is at large in the village, elsewhere than on the premises of the owner shall be presumptive evidence that the dog has been permitted to be at large with the knowledge of the owner or person having custody and control of the dog.

Seizure of unleashed dogs — Alternative to seizure

(a) Dogs which are not restrained by leash and which are off the premises of the owner and are upon the premises of another person without the knowledge and consent of such person, may be seized as hereinafter provided, or in the alternative, the dog warden or anyone duly authorized by the chief of police to enforce this article may issue a summons to the owner alleging a violation of this article and directing said person to appear before the village justice at a time and date indicated thereon to answer said charge.

(b) Ownership to a dog may be proven by its dog tag number. Such identification shall be presumptive evidence of its ownership.

ARTICLE II
Definitions —

As used in this article, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following words, terms and phrases shall have the meanings herein ascribed to them:

At large — A dog shall be deemed to be at large if off the premises of its owner and not restrained by a leash.

Dog Warden — Any person appointed by the mayor to assist in the enforcement of this article and Article 7 of the Agriculture and Markets Law of the State of New York as therein specified.

Owner — Any person having title of property in a dog and any person who keeps or harbors a dog or has a dog in his care or who acts as its custodian.

ARTICLE III

Seizure of unlicensed, untagged Dogs

(a) The dog warden or any of his duly authorized assistants and the duly authorized agents of any person or corporation enforcing the Agriculture and Markets Law and the Public Health Law relating to dogs shall seize any unlicensed dog either on or off the owner's premises. This will not apply to a dog under the age of six (6) months which is not at large.

(b) Any dog warden or such representative shall seize any dog found at large not wearing a license.

(c) The fact that a dog is without a tag attached to a collar as provided by law shall be presumptive evidence that the dog is unlicensed.

ARTICLE IV

Disposition of unlicensed, untagged Dogs

Every dog seized as provided in Article III shall be dealt with pursuant to Section 114 of the Agriculture and Market Law of the State of New York which provides for the seizure and redemption of dogs so seized.

ARTICLE V

Penalties

A violation of this article shall be an offense and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen (15) days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

STATE OF NEW YORK

County of Allegany

Joan C. Dibble, Village Clerk of the Village of Andover, N. Y., does hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an ordinance duly adopted by the Village Board of the Village of Andover, on September 26, 1973 after a public hearing, being an ordinance on control of dogs within the Village of Andover, Allegany County, N. Y.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto signed this certificate and attached the seal of the Village of Andover, N. Y. This ordinance shall take effect after publication. Dated this 27th day of September 1973.

JOAN C. DIBBLE
(SEAL) Village Clerk
Village of Andover, N. Y.

Graves-Spencer

The United Methodist Church of Andover, was the setting Saturday, July 14, 1973 for the marriage of Miss Kathryn Ann Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Spencer of Andover and Neil William Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Graves of R.D. Rexville.

The 2 p. m. double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ray Albaugh, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Andover before an altar decorated with baskets of white daisies, mums, pink and white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

The bride, escorted to the altar on the arm of her father and given in marriage by her parents, selected a traditional gown of white bridal illusion over taffeta. The gown featured a high neckline, traditional waist and bishop sleeves. The collar, bodice front and cuffs of the sleeves were trimmed with white satin pull-through ribbon and lace. A flounce was attached to the bottom of the skirt with matching pull-through lace and ribbon. The bride's headpiece was a Juliet cap with an illusion blusher attached to a chapel length mantilla. The Juliet cap and mantilla were edged in lace matching that of the gown.

She carried a triangular shaped hand bouquet of white daisies, pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath with matching satin streamers.

The bride's attendants were Miss Connie Baker of Andover, as Honor attendant with Mrs. Rodney Brown of Wahliawa, Hawaii, Miss Kim McConnell of Wellsville, cousin of the bride, Miss Connie Spencer, sister of the bride as bridesmaids.

The attendants were identically dressed in rainbow colors of blue, yellow, green and pink sheer organza over taffeta floral print gowns. The gowns featured a smocked Empire bodice with scooped neckline, and half sleeves with smocked bands on the upper sleeve. They wore garden hats, matching the colors of their gowns. Each attendant carried a single white rose.

Best man for the groom was Jerry Smith of Rexville, N. Y. Ushers were Lewis Spencer of Andover, brother of the bride; Stephen Lewis and Earl Graves, brother of the groom, both of Rexville, N. Y.

Ring bearer was Master Donald Frost, cousin of the groom from Andover.

A reception for 150 guests was held immediately following the ceremony at the A.P.B. Club on the Vandermark Road, Scio, N. Y. Music for the reception was provided by Rick and Rich Ordway of Whitesville.

The couple are in residence in Andover after a wedding trip touring points of interest in New York State.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Spencer chose a two piece ensemble of green and white. The groom's mother selected a melon knit dress with matching veil. They wore corsages of white carnations tipped in colors to match the attire, and baby's breath.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School Class of 1973 and the Andrew F. Haynes Occupational Center of Belmont, N. Y. She is presently employed by the Andover Medical Center.

The groom is a graduate of Whitesville Central School and the Community College of the Finger Lakes where he received a degree in Associate Arts. He is presently a senior at Houghton College majoring in Physical Education.

Pre-nuptial events included a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Susan Brown of Hawaii and a variety shower given by Miss Connie Baker of Andover.

Appreciation
