Edward Mullen has been Scoutmaster at Greenwood for eleven years. He is also working this past year in Leadership Training in the enlarged Scouting District. The District gives two Beaver Awards yearly and Ed was honored to receive one at the meeting at Watson Homestead last week-end. The citation, given by Mr. Babcock read as follows: "Quiet in appearance, but loud in his defense of Scouting. Delicate and sensitive to human needs, but strong in his service to his fellow man. Practical in his daily vocation, but a dreamer to the opportunities of Scouting. A craftsman with his hands, but an artist, an editor, a poet with an imagination. A rugged outdoorsman, with a soft heart for boys. A broad prospective of Scouting through his travels, but a definite commitment to Scouting in his own community. These are humble descriptions of a man whom we honor tonight. He makes personal sacrifices to carry out his service and devotion to Scouting. His light shines through the leadership of others. He is faithful and steadfast to his every Scouting commitment. A true friend. He and his wife are devoted to the cause of Scouting. Tonight we honor a humble Humanitarian and a great Scouter. Edward R. Mullen of Greenwood, N. Y."
