Farmer-members of Greenwood Agway held their annual meeting October 26, 1973 in the Methodist Church Hall and elected two farmers to the store's member committee.

Elected to three-year terms were: Lavrene Stephens and Frank Symonds.

Committee Chairman Lavrene Stephens presided, and reported on a meeting of the Agway Council which he attended. The Agway Council serves as an advisory group to the Agway Inc., board of directors and is made up of the chairmen of some 400 Agway store and representative committees.

Dale Lamphier reported for the member committee. A report covering the store's operation for the past fiscal year was given by the Manager Harold Porter. He told the 110 members present that sales volume for 1972-73 amounted to $531,198.

A report on developments within the entire Agway system was given by Area Manager, Edward Linsler of Addison, N. Y.

Mrs. Eloise Holt had a heart attack and an emergency operation to massage her heart at the St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell. She was unconscious and has not regained consciousness as yet. Monday the Greenwood Ambulance transferred her from the St. James Mercy Hospital to Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester. Tests show no brain damage and all her organs are functioning. The churches were open Wednesday through Sunday for individuals to go and pray for Mrs. Holt.

Mrs. George Angello entered the St. James Mercy Hospital Tuesday and underwent surgery Thursday. Over the week-end their son Mr. and Mrs. Michael Angello and two children of Bradford, Pa., were with his father and called on his mother at the hospital.

Miss Permelia White brought Matt Rogers home from the Bethesda Hospital, Thursday.

Twenty-five members of the Greenwood Senior Citizens went to a dinner meeting at Bath Thursday night on a Greenwood Central School bus, driven by Mr. Shults.
