Editorial

by Teresa Polmateer

Well, winter is finally upon us. (Boy is it upon us!) Today, November 6, it snowed and how many of you drivers had snow tires on your car. I know of one person who thought ahead. In fact she's had her winter tires on all summer. Yea, Dee Dee!

What does winter mean to you? To a majority of the children it means sledding, throwing snowballs at your favorite friend, or just watching the snow fall. To our parents and older friends it means trying to get that extra money for winter tires, coats, mittens, and boots. Acquiring money for those doctor bills when the little ones or even yourself come down with a bad cold. For our mothers it is trying to keep the house warm and dry during these months of winter.

To a minority of us, including myself, it's watching the snow fall while strolling home from a basketball game. Winter is sitting back and watching mother nature fool us for a change. So when you get all the extras paid for take it easy and see how beautiful winter can really be. Of course "Beauty is only in the eye of the beholder."

Cub News

In Cub action last Wednesday night, October 31, after school, the Pistons handed the Knicks their first loss of the season by a close score of 28 to 27. Pat Atwell connected on three baskets late in the game to put the Pistons ahead. Preston was high man for the Pistons with 15 points and Atwell contributed 10 points. Marty Geer connected for 17 points for the losing Knicks.

In the second game the Bucks downed the Celtics by a score of 27 to 19. The Celtics outshot the Bucks, but couldn't seem to find the range. Shaw led the Bucks scoring with 9 points followed by Dibble and Weber with 7 points each. Neval was high man for the Celtics with 8 points.

The Cubs next play on Wednesday, November 7 from 7:00 until 8:30 P. M. with the Celtics and Knicks facing off in the first game and the Bucks against the Pistons in the second game.

Interviewer

by Judy Bliss

Did you ever wonder what or where you'll be in five years? As the interviewer this week it was my task to get a "scoop" on what some ACS students thought they were doing in five years and here is what they said.

Chad Grossman - President of Grossman Vending Machine
 Rosie Billings - Director of Nursing at Jones Memorial Hospital
 Tom Weibezahl - Andover Town Cop

Ms. Troxell - Organizing wheelchair races at the "home"
 Steve-Dunham - Principal at A.C.S.

Nora Kelley - finishing my senior year at A.C.S.
 Brenda Haugh - Physical Ed Director at A.C.S.

Diane Bliss - Water Girl for the "Crimson Tide"
 Brian Lynch - designing a chair his father won't fall asleep in

Mrs. McCormick - Giving First Aid to Ms. Troxell's wheelchair racers

Mike Bliss - World Champion Bumper Pool Player
 Mrs. Boyer - Musical Director at Ms. Troxell's home

Senior Dance

There will be a dance on Friday November 16, introducing "Small Change". This dance will be sponsored by the seniors and it will be held from 9 - 12 in the ACS gym. Tickets will be $1.75 per person. See you there!

Downbeats

The Band Student of the Week is Laura Tomm.

New Teacher

by Dale Russell

Our new teacher this week is Mrs. Sheila Greene who is teaching one of the three sixth grades. Mrs. Greene graduated from Wellsville High School in 1966. She furthered her education at State University of Geneseo where she majored in Elementary Education and minored in Art.

She is married to Bill Greene who graduated from Andover in 1966. They now have a son, Billy Greene, Jr., who was born November 10, 1971 in Wellsville. The family is now residing at 9 1/2 Pleasant Avenue, Andover. Her special interests are swimming, dancing, reading and most sports. She is also a cheerleader advisor at Andover.

Good luck to you in the future years at A.C.S.

Student Teacher

by Beth Polmateer

Student teaching assignments began for six college students October 29 through December 14. Student teachers for Andover are as follows:

Reed Walden of Alfred University - Art with Mr. William MacCrea, as a teacher sponsor.

David Lawrence of Alfred University - General Science under the direction of Mr. Glenn Bronson

Michelle Miller of Alfred University - Music, sponsored by Mrs. Nancy Potter.

Carolyn Kettler of Alfred University - Math under Mr. Joseph Mumma

Steven Saunders of Alfred University - Math, with Mr. James Faber, acting as the sponsoring teacher.

Senior Interview

by Cindy Tomm

One bright sunny day a beautiful baby was brought into this world. Carol Jean Clark has brought joy to her parents' lives since September 29, 1956. Carol has two younger sisters in her family Losi and Kathy.

Carol is majoring in cosmetology at BOCES. She has great enthusiasm for this course and plans to be a beautician after her graduation this year.

Carol has been awarded Perfect Attendance Awards for her fifth, tenth and eleventh grades. She worked on Library Council for one year. Last year she was an usherette and worked on costumes for the junior play.

Carol's charm has brought her far and we hope she will have happiness and success always.

Youth Activity Committee Meeting

by Lori Stein

A Youth Activity Committee meeting was held recently. It dealt with improving the town of Andover. Attending the meeting were: Mayor James Bliss, Mr. Charles Dain Mr. Howard Burdick, Rev. Albaugh, Teresa Polmateer and Lori Stein. Members Bill Geer and Jim MacMichael were unable to attend.

We discussed different possibilities for the enjoyment of Andover. If you have any suggestions, please contact one of the above mentioned.

Student Council News

by Dale Russell

The Student Council is having a concert in the Andover Central School gym on Thursday, November 8, starring, "Bob Nash"

Whether some people have noticed it or not, the student lounge has a new look. The Student Council is sponsoring a vending machine. It has twenty-one selections all of which cost a dime. The machine may be used during the high school lunch period after all students are served and during all student lounge periods.

We hope the students will not abuse the privilege and use it correctly and show a little responsibility.

Interviewer

by Marsha Baker

I came across a word that was new to me the other day while talking to a former graduate. I hadn't the faintest idea what the word meant. I asked a few people from A.C.S. and here are their responses for the meaning of the word, "diutea":

Cindy Halsey - a bad case of the laughs

CeCe Gavin - Gary Briggs

Sara Pantone - a Friday night on the town

Mr. Faber - a tree

Mr. Russell - a plant that grows in the desert of Arizona

Scott Middaugh - a mixed drink served at Frank's

Ricky Cahill - a kind of panther

Steve Dunham - an easy way to get drunk

Well, people, you're all wrong.

The meaning of this word is really slang, but it means a person with no mentality or a zero mind.

What If?

Dee Dee Gorsuch

What if George were a hot dog instead of a Burger?

What if Sara were a thorn instead of a Rose?

What if Chad were a nice man instead of a Grossman?

What if Lisa were purple instead of Brown?

What if Laurie were Joe instead of Tom?

What if Sue were a him instead of a Herr?

What if Marsha were a cook instead of a Baker?

What if Mike were a misletoe instead of a Reith?

What if Judy were sad instead of Bliss?

What if Bobby were an oak instead of a Burch?

What if Sara were calm instead of Pantone?

What if Steve were a runner instead of a Walker?

Senior Play

by Nora Kelley
