Wellsville Grange Hosts Pomona

Wellsville Grange No. 1587, was host to approximately 98 people from area Granges, Nov. 3rd at 7:00.

A potluck supper was served and enjoyed by all. Immediately following the supper was a meeting with the Pomona Officers filling the chairs. The main objective of the meeting was to present awards to the Youth and area Granges of Allegany County given by the New York State Grange. It was a very informative meeting and enjoyed by one and all.

Kingsmen Drum Corps To Hold Awards Banquet

The Kingsmen Drum & Bugle Corps of Erie County is holding its 47th Annual Awards Banquet and Reunion, Saturday, November 17, at John's Flaming Hearth in Lackawanna.

All current members, retired members, friends and supporters of the Kingsmen are invited to attend.

Numerous invitations have been sent out, but there are many people who in the past have been associated with the Kingsmen who's whereabouts are unknown. Persons who were ever connected with the Corps and who would be interested in attending, should contact Mike Seime at 885-8089 for reservations as soon as possible.

The Kingsmen would also like to extend an invitation to anyone involved with other Drum Corps in the area.

R. D. Carriers Aid In Farm Survey

Rural mail carriers out of the Andover Post Office are distributing questionnaires to farmers for the December 1973 Livestock Survey.

The survey seeks information on cattle, milk cows, and hogs on New York farms. Similar surveys are being conducted in all States at this same time. The results provide the basis for State and National estimates of cattle and hogs inventory, as well as calf and pig crop. It should be emphasized that each farmer's report is held in strict confidence.

In New York, rural mail carriers are distributing questionnaires and return envelopes, leaving them in mail boxes of a sample for farmers. Completed questionnaires are to be mailed in the return envelopes to the New York Crop Reporting Service at Albany for summarization. The return envelopes are pre-addressed and re-
