Editorial

The Women's Liberation is on the move. Congratulations! But the time has come to move over, girls, for now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their own liberty.

With that in mind, the following is set forth demanding each male's right to equality, liberty, and common sense.

* No male should be discriminated against simply because he is physically stronger. Let the girls open their own doors, carry their own books, shovel the snow, and so on.

* No male should be ridiculed as a sex symbol. Advertisers - please note. Man needs little artifice to display his naturally handsome appearance. Think of the money he saves on lipstick, perfume, etc.

* No male should get less allowance than his sister. And let there be some return to good old-fashioned, Dutch treat standards on dates.

* No male should support newspapers, magazines, films, books, television programs, etc., that feature a man as the domineering sex if he caters to a girl's whims and wishes.

* No male should be cowed, frightened, molested, or influenced in any way by the tears of a girl.

* No male should dress to please that special girl unless it pleases him to do so.

* No male should share his last name with a wife unless she agrees to love, honor, and respect him through all the days of his life.

* No male should provide a girl equal pay until she has proved her ability to do the work as well.

* No male is a man unless he stands up for his rights as a man! Editor's Note: Name and address of author - unknown.

I Spy

by Guess Who??

News Spy this last week, I caught many of my fellow friends off guard that were out enjoying themselves. And as usual many situations have been proven to be very interesting and educational.

I heard Chad G. has a lovely new admirer from Wellsville!

I see Jeff D., Mark M. and Shawn M. were giving boxing lessons Friday night!

I see Steve D., Steve H., Dave D., Gary B., Tom W. and Shawn M. had "lots" of fun on vacation, especially the night you went to Whitesville?

Marsh B. I hear you had fun at the bowling alley! By the way how is it to meet an old friend!

Steve D. and Rex V. have you paid off your debts yet??

I hear Tom W., Shawn M. and Gary B. had fun in Wellsville, too. Is it true you have war wounds to prove it, Shawn?

Dave H., Deb B., Teresa S., Alan L., Mike B., Nancy S. and Steve W., is it true or is it not that you were at the drive-in Friday night? But aren't the drive-ins - closed?

Dee Dee, I hear you had fun Thursday night! Was it at McDonalds by any chance?

Well, Scott M. how did it feel Saturday morning to be a year older?

Lisa B. don't you wish Halloween came around more often?

Hal C. I heard you've had a few dreams lately?

Well it's best to be good and beware, because who knows when the Spy will strike again!

Senior News

by Dee Dee Gorsuch

The senior dance which was scheduled for November 18, was cancelled because the band failed to show up. In its place, the seniors held a record hop, from which the seniors received $50 profit.

A candy sale is also underway. Three kinds of candy are being sold. Coconut Patties, Peanut Glusters and Nut-Log Rolls.

Senior Class Presenting Plays

The Senior Class of Andover Central School will present two one-act plays on November 30 in the school gymnasium at 7:30 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Jean Shear.

"The Widow's Plight" is a turn-of-the-century, burlesque melodrama. A poor, young widow, Arminta Heartensole, is plagued by the constant affections of Bludsoe Heartensole, her brother-in-law. Bludsoe is intent on marrying the unhappy Arminta for the insurance money he is sure she has. The future looks grave until Tobias Trout, a young fire-laddie, vows to thwart Bludsoe's evil deeds.

"The Capricious Pearls" is a comedy which begins as the members of "the gang" are reunited after having served their time in various correctional institutions for the theft of a string of pearls. Much to their dismay, they find that the deserted house in which they hid the pearls has been converted to a home for elderly women. Their attempts to retrieve the pearls provide the gang with many unexpected problems and the audience with hilarious entertainment.

The committees for the Senior Plays are as follows:

Stage Crew - Don Burns (Chairman) Dennis Ordiway, Judy Bliss, Keith Shaw, Danny Davis, George Burger, Brian Lynch, Cindy Barden, Mike Dibble, Harriet McCormick, Don Lang

Advertising, Tickets, Programs - Laurie Tomm (Chairman) Carol Clark, Sara Rose, Judy Bliss, Ruth Atwell, Alcira Ballon

Prompters - Sue Herr, Leann Freeland, Nora Kelley, Elaine Bronson,

Properties - Elaine Bronson, Don Lang, Dee Dee Gorsuch, Nora Kelley

Costumes - Carol Clark, Sue Herr

Make up - Rose Billings (Chairman) Dee Dee Gorsuch, Elaine Bronson

Piano ("The Widows Plight") - Sue Herr

Senior Interview

by Marsha Baker

December 29, 1956 was a very important day for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis. This day marked the birthday of Daniel Charles Davis. Danny has one older sister, Karen, two younger brothers, John and Rob and one younger sister, Michelle. Danny's majors are math and science.

His many activities include treasurer of the senior class. Danny has been in Camera Club for four years and he has played soccer for three years; Danny has been involved in basketball for six years, two years on Cubs, two years on J.V.'s and two years on the Varsity Squad. Danny also has played Varsity Baseball for three years.

In the Class Play he was the Student Director. He placed first in the Geometry Awards in his sophomore year.

Danny also was on the track team and has been a member of the Varsity Club for three years. Last year Danny was a member of our basketball team that entered the Foul Shooting Contest in Wellsville which they won.

As for the future after Danny graduates from A.C.S. he plans to be an electrical engineer. I'm sure that all the students at A.C.S. wish him the best of luck.

Swimming

Mr. Zoltan Szabo has been busily readying his swimming team for their opening meet December 4, at Canisteo. The team is a very young one consisting mainly of sophomores and juniors. The team is in a very strong division consisting of large schools in the Class A and B grouping. This makes it difficult for such a small school to compete with these schools.

However, Andover is still looking forward to a better season than last year with individual improvements to help make the season more successful.

The following is the 1973-74 swimming roster and schedule for our Andover Finmen
