What does Christmas mean to you? What kind of a person are you? After answering a few questions maybe you will discover what this holiday is to you.

Is Christmas more bills for all those presents?

Are you aware of happy, anxious faces during these last weeks before Christmas?

Is your main worry the snow on the ground affecting transportation?

Are you waiting for caroling to begin?

Is weariness setting in because of the abundance of publicity put on Christmas decorations due to the energy crisis?

Or are your thoughts about family, old friends, and new acquaintances?

Do you think Christmas is more specials on T.V. for the season?

However, you may be the type of person who remembers December 25 as a day of celebration for the birth of Jesus and a time for more Christian fellowship.

Are you forgiving other people and yourself for mistakes throughout the year?

How about all of those parties during the Christmas holiday?

Where are your thoughts for Christmas? What does Christmas really mean to you?

Spy

GUESS WHO

Well, here I am again. I'll bet you didn't think that I'd be back again so soon so you didn't behave. Right? Well, now you've had it!

Kathy H. - I hear Fred had a debate of dates Friday night - did you win?

Steve H., Scott M., and Jeff H. - had their playtoy taken away from them at the school the other night. How about it boys?

Linda M. - have you made up your mind yet. Come on what's taking so long?

Brenda V. - when are you going to wake up and realize what one person says is the word and you must obey.

CsCe G. - What's wrong with you lately? You seem withdrawn - unable to cope? How come?

I hear Debbie G. had a party this week-end. Someone said it wasn't too great, but what about the others??

It must have been a week-end for parties? Right, Dee Dee? By the way how was yours? Did any of the Big Shots around the area make it?

I could go on and on, but I'll save it. Remember, BEWARE! Spy is always around!

It is that time of year when everyone is busy putting up Christmas decorations and shopping for gifts for everyone. While I was scanning the December Reporter I found a new version of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," that I thought you would enjoy reading.

"Twas That Night Before"

"Twas the night before Christmas And all through the house. Not a creature was stirring, 'Cept dad and his spouse. Their faces were haggard, All wrinkled with care. They looked at each other And sighed with despair. Could they both be enjoying The presents they got? From the look on their faces, We knew they were not. It was simple to us. What was causing their ills. They were figuring out How to pay all those bills. I also found this selection and I thought that I would share it with you.

The girls playing volleyball this season met their first defeat in playing Wellsville and Belmont last Tuesday, December 4.

They lost the game to Alfred-Almond and beat Whitesville last Wednesday, Dec. 5.

When the girls go to a volleyball meet, they play two games with two different teams. All of the games are played in the larger schools where there are two volleyball courts. This way two games may take place at once.

Dear Perry:

Just a little hint . . . but Ludden's Shoe Store in Wellsville have the biggest selection of slippers and snow-boots in the area. They will gift wrap and exchange too!

Love,

PEG

P. S. - In fact . . . I would even like a Ludden Gift Certificate.
