

Airman and Mrs. Ronald Godown

Laurie Collins and Ronald Godown United in Double-Ring Ceremony

The First Congregational Church of Wellsville, N. Y., decorated with pink, yellow, blue and green mums, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Laurie Jean Collins to Airman Ronald Lloyd Godown Friday, January 4, 1974.

The Rev. Gerald Wolter, pastor at the Spencer Methodist Church in Hornell, performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p. m. Mrs. Daniel English, Wellsville, was organist and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Richard Godown, of Andover, N. Y., soloists.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Collins, R.D. 3, Wellsville, N. Y., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Godown of Andover, N. Y.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, selected a formal imported silk organza gown with a Victorian neckline and bodice and Juliet sleeves trimmed with Venise lace. The gown had an Empire waist. A-line skirt that was bordered with wide ruffles. A pink sash ribbon was interwoven through the lace at the neckline and at the edge of the sleeves. A Venise lace-trimmed ruffle bordered the edge of the skirt. The chapel length train contained lace trim with Venise lace appliques.

A Juliet cap covered with matching lace and an elbow length veil was the bride's headpiece. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink carnations with pink green, yellow and blue pom-poms and pink, blue, green and yellow lilies of the valley, pink Sweetheart roses and baby's breath tied with pink streamers.

Miss Joan Wightman, Andover, Maid-of-Honor, chose a floor-length gown with pink velvet bodice and a pink polyester skirt and long sleeves with velvet cuffs. Her bouquet consisted of baby's breath and carnations in pink, yellow, blue and green tied with pink streamers to match the pink flowers of her headband.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Beamer of Wellsville, who wore a green gown, Miss Marcel Sueg of Clean in blue and Miss Susan Stephens of Alfred Station in yellow. The flower girl, Miss Susan Godown, sister of the groom, was attired similarly to the maid-of honor. The attendants bouquets were the same as the maid-of-honor's, with streamers and headbands matching their ensembles. Miss Susan Stephens tinted all bridal flowers.

Alexander Burr of Alfred, was the best man. The ushers were Roger Godown and Russell Godown, brothers of the groom and Douglas Green of Wellsville.

Matthew Deane Heller of Wellsville, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

A reception was held at the Shamrock Inn, Andover Road in

Notice To Harborers Of Owners Of Dogs

Dog Licenses are due on or before January 1st, 1974, and are now past due. They may be obtained at the Town Clerk's Office.

The law requires that dogs be licensed by January 1. Failure to obtain a license subjects the owner to a penalty of $10.00 and costs and the dog is liable to seizure.

The commissioner of Health has issued an order requiring all dogs six months of age or over in the County to be vaccinated to prevent rabies. Therefore an applicant for a dog license must present to the Clerk a certificate certified by a duly licensed veterinarian showing that the dog has been so vaccinated.

To be acceptable, the certificate presented must show that a modified live virus vaccine was used within four years immediately preceding the application date, or that killed vaccine of brain tissue or brain tissue origin was within the year immediately preceding the application date.

If your application is mailed to the Clerk, the vaccination certificate must accompany your application and check.

GLADY FOX, Town Clerk
