

Grand Officers Make Official Visit To Andover

Anna W. McArthur Chapter No. 242, was host for 113 people who attended the visitation of R.W. Betty Palmiter, District Deputy Grand Matron and R.W. Howard Burdick, District Grand Lecturer on Monday, March 11, 1974.

Worthy Matron Pauline Yorton, called the meeting to order. She then presented R.W. Betty Palmiter and R.W. Howard Burdick to the members of Anna W. McArthur Chapter and visitors.

Jean Button, Betty Grossman and Doris MacMichael were initiated into Anna W. McArthur Chapter. Preceding the initiation, a duet was sung by W. Hazel Burgett and R.W. Pauline Yorton.

Following the initiation, R.W. Betty Palmiter and R.W. Howard Burdick spoke. They each praised the Chapter for its good work. They spoke of the good work in which the Eastern Star is engaged. They congratulated the new members and encouraged them to attend future meetings.

W. Gail Hardy had charge of the presentation. She had her son, Mark Hardy, who was dressed as a leprechaun, present R.W. Betty Palmiter and R.W. Howard Burdick with little leprechauns and personal gifts. W. Gail and Mark recited appropriate verses for St. Pat's Day.

R.W. Pauline Yorton turned the meeting over to R.W. Betty Palmiter who then presented R.W. Julia Washbon Grand Representative to South Carolina and R.W. Gerald Rice, Associate Grand Sentinel. She then accorded Grand Honors to all past appointed Grand Officers, present Matrons and Patrons and Past Matrons and Patrons.

W. Irene Hann then approached the East with gifts for the Grand Matron's project and the Grand Patron's project. Each gift was presented with a candle depicting the project.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room which was beautifully decorated for St. Pat's Day.
